Born in Washington C.H., she had lived her entire life in the Bookwalter Community.

Surviving is a daughter, Lisa Ann Noble; her parents, Woodrow and Ellen Gordon Wilson, 1550 Harold Rd., with whom she made her home; one sister, Mrs. Carol Ann Cox, Harold Rd.; and a brother, Dale Edward Wilson, of Springfield. One sister is deceased.

Egypt to break Mideast truce?

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Egypt has secretly warned Palestinian guerrillas that it plans to break the three-year Middle East cease-fire soon, the Lebanese newspaper An Nahar reported today.

The warning was discussed in a nine-hour emergency session of the executive committee of the Palestine Liberation Organization under top guerrilla leader Yasir Arafat in Beirut Thursday, An Nahar said.

A guerrilla spokesman said a statement about the executive committee's meeting was to be issued within 24 hours. He declined to comment on the reported Egyptian warning.

Toledo men slain, then bodies burned

MONROE, Mich. (AP) — Police today probed the slaying of two Ohio men whose charred bodies were found in rural Monroe County within the past 24 hours.

The victims were identified as Carlus Maltbia, 32, and Rudford James, 23, both of Toledo.

Singer Jim Croce killed

NATCHITOCHES, La. (AP) — Recording star Jim Croce, whose latest hit was top seller "Big Bad Leroy Brown," was killed along with five others in a plane crash near the Natchitoches municipal airport.

The 30-year-old rock singer had just completed a performance before 2,000 students at Northwestern State University.

NASA studies women's role in future space missions

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Aeronautics and Space Administration has started studies aimed at eventually putting women into space.

Announcement of the experiments, already underway in California, comes only weeks after a women's magazine, Ms., accused the space agency of sex discrimination in its selection of astronauts.

There never has been a female U.S. astronaut although the Soviet Union's Valentina Tereshkova spent 70 hours and 50 minutes in space in 1963.

The California tests are the first ever conducted by NASA on the suitability of females in space. However, NASA officials have been saying for three years they hoped to put a woman aboard the space shuttle flights scheduled to start in 1978.

The five-week NASA studies, involving 12 Air Force flight nurses, started last Monday at the Ames Research Center in Mountain View, Calif.

Bangladesh faces loss of U.N. bid

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Prime Minister Zulfikar Ali Bhutto of Pakistan has barred Bangladesh from membership in the United Nations until all Pakistani prisoners of war are returned home.

Bhutto told the General Assembly Thursday afternoon his government would withdraw its opposition to the admission of Pakistan's former eastern half into the world organization "as soon as all our prisoners of war ... have been repatriated."

He specified that those returned must include the 195 POWs that Bangladesh wants to put on trial for war crimes during the December 1971 India-Pakistan war that gave Bangladesh its independence.

China, Pakistan's chief Asian ally, vetoed Bangladesh's application for U.N. membership last year and presumably will continue to block it as long as Pakistan wants that done.

Demo leaders study reforms

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic party leaders seek to head off a divisive fight today as the party's reform commission meets to consider new guidelines for picking 1976 national convention delegates.

National Chairman Robert S. Strauss set the tone Thursday when he warned the warring factions to compromise.

Strauss said the American public is "sick and tired of those on either side of the political spectrum who create ill will where there is none, exaggerate points of issue and controversy where there should be compromise, take cheap shots at the leaders and standard bearers of our party ... and use reform as a tool to destroy individuals, destroy institutions and advance private goals and personal ambitions."

Strauss recommended the scrapping of the controversial "quota" system, more assurance that elected officials are included in party affairs and limits on the application of proportional representation.

All three actions already were expected, but Strauss' added voice appeared to be a notice to diehards on both sides of the ideological struggle that he expects them to join the compromise.

Roosevelt to testify

WASHINGTON (AP) — Elliott Roosevelt, son of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, has accepted a Senate panel's invitation to appear to answer charges he helped contract for the assassination of the prime minister of the Bahamas.

That charge was levelled earlier this week by convicted stock swindler Louis PM Mastriana, who told the Senate subcommittee on investigations on investigations Roosevelt was one of two men who offered him $100,000 to assassinate Lyndon O. Pindling.

Mastriana said he turned down the offer.

Roosevelt has flatly denied the allegation and has described Mastriana as "absolutely crazy."

Sen. Henry Jackson, D-Wash., chairman of the subcommittee, said Roosevelt, former mayor of Miami Beach who now lives in Portugal, may appear as early as next week.

5 girls are selected for Ohio State Band

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Karen Griffith of Pomeroy and four other young women have been selected as the first female members of the Ohio State University marching band.

Miss Griffith was named a regular band member, and the others were chosen as alternates.

The alternates are Sue Johnson of Pickerington, Lisa Bauman of Worthington, Becky Parker of Dennison and Rachel Fauser of Lakewood.

Natchitoches Parish Sheriff Sam James said Robert N. Elliott of Dallas was the pilot of the twin-engine chartered plane. The others were connected with the tour group.

The crash occurred about 10:45 p.m. Thursday, as the plane left the south runway. It crashed about 200 yards from the end of the runway after hitting a tree.

NASA said eight of the 12 volunteers will be kept in bed for two weeks while four will be allowed to walk.

At the end of the two weeks, the eight women will be subjected to gravitational forces expected when the Space Shuttle enters the atmosphere at the end of the mission.

Data from the eight test subjects will be compared to data from the four women who were allowed to walk.

Ms. said in a recent issue that NASA had rejected several qualified women as potential astronauts, including famed Oklahoma aviator Jerrie Cobb, who had more flight time than many of the men eventually selected for moon missions.

Scientists hope to determine how well women withstand the low gravitational forces of reentry and the tendency of the blood to pool in the legs.

They also will study specific changes in the body induced by weightlessness. The studies will concentrate on biorhythms, body biochemistry, cardiovascular responses and changes in the endocrine gland, NASA says.

Data gained from the experiments will be compared with data from experiments on men.

Singh, after hearing Bhutto's speech, termed it "a crude attempt to nibble at the agreement" India and Pakistan signed Aug. 28 for the exchange of more than 300,000 people displaced by the war. But Singh expressed confidence that Pakistan would abide by the agreement "because it is not in Pakistan's interest ... to adopt any other course."

The agreement provided for the return of all the 90,000 Pakistan POWs from India except the 195. It specified that they would remain in Indian custody until their disposition was decided at a meeting of Bangladesh, India and Pakistan.

Bhutto came to U. N. headquarters after a visit to President Nixon in Washington. He told the assembly Pakistan has "never been embarrassed" by its 20-year-old alliance with the United States. But he said Pakistan maintains friendly relations with China and the Soviet Union as well.

The commission, headed by former Baltimore Councilwoman Barbara Mikulski, scheduled two days of discussions beginning today on rule-change proposals covered in six regional hearings over the summer.

Although no actual rulemaking was expected this weekend, Ms. Mikulski, as she prefers to be called, hoped to create a drafting committee to prepare proposals to be acted on at a commission meeting in October.

Rome (AP) — The major wheat exporters say they anticipate no immediate wheat crisis, but the U.N. Food and Agriculture Organization says the poor nations can't afford the current high prices.

"Although supplies of wheat are tight, there is certainly no crisis situation," declared Richard E. Bell, a deputy assistant U.S. secretary of agriculture.

Officials of the U.N. Food and Agriculture Organization called agricultural experts from the United States, Canada, Argentina, Australia and the nine Common Market countries together Thursday because world wheat stocks are at their lowest level in 20 years.

After the conference, FAO said even if there is enough wheat to go around, developing countries are being forced to cut their imports because of "the high prices, shortage of credit and the expected shortfall of food aid levels."

Benny, actually in his 70s, says he's been following closely Aaron's pursuit of Babe Ruth's all-time home run record of 714.

The comedian said: "I'm pulling for him. If I weren't so busy, I'd fly to where he is to watch him do it. That's something I'd really like to see."

There was a wide range of temperatures over Ohio Friday morning. Skies were clear in the northern parts of the state and the mercury sank into the 30s in some sections.

In contrast farther south a blanket of clouds held temperatures up and along the Ohio River readings were around the 60-degree mark.

Temperatures Friday morning ranged from 33 at Youngstown to 60 at Cincinnati. The reading at Youngstown equaled the record for the date set in 1956.

A cooling trend will be moving into Ohio Sunday with a chance of showers. Monday and Tuesday will be fair and cool. Highs Sunday will be in the 70s, cooling to the 60s by Tuesday. Lows Sunday morning will be in the 60s, falling to the 40s by Tuesday.

Cool, crisp air fanned across the northern Great Lakes region into New York and New England today dropping temperatures to near freezing.

Skies were clear over most of the nation except for widely scattered showers and thunderstorms.

Thunderstorms rumbled across areas from the Pacific Northwest coast to the northern Rockies. A few light showers sprinkled parts of the northern Mississippi Valley and lower Ohio Valley and parts of Florida.

Rainfall generally was less than one-half inch. Over an inch fell in many places along the northern Pacific coast Thursday. And San Francisco had its first significant rain in five months Thursday as 2.5 inches were measured.

Fog was common along the California coast and over Missouri, Kansas and parts of Arkansas and Nebraska.

Asbestos in water said hazard

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — A physician-scientist has testified that the presence of asbestos in the drinking water of Duluth and other Lake Superior communities is responsible for "a distinct public health hazard."

Dr. Irving Selikoff predicted "disastrous consequences" Thursday for residents of communities which take their drinking water from the largest of the Great Lakes.

Selikoff, professor of medicine at the Mount Sinai School of Medicine in New York, is the U.S. Government's chief scientific witness. The government's suit is aimed at ending the Reserve Mining Company's discharge of taconite tailings into Lake Superior. He was scheduled to be cross examined today by Reserve attorneys.

The government suit contends Reserve's discharge from its Silver Bay, Minn., plant contains large amounts of asbestos.

Selikoff concluded three days of testimony on the cancer-producing quality of asbestos fibers.

Reserve attorney Edward Friede objected to Selikoff's testimony, complaining the witness had been allowed to comment freely on anything from asbestos to the state of the nation.

However, U.S. District Judge Miles Lord, who is hearing the complex case without a jury, overruled the objections. He said Friede had no way of knowing how much of Selikoff's testimony he would consider as evidence.

Hank Aaron wins 'title'

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Comedian Jack Benny says he's relinquishing his title as the most famous "39-year-old" personality.

"I'm abdicating and giving the title to Hank Aaron," Benny said Thursday in an interview with Wayne Minshew, baseball writer for the Atlanta Constitution.

"He's No. 1 right now," Benny said. Benny, actually in his 70s, says he's been following closely Aaron's pursuit of Babe Ruth's all-time home run record of 714.

Columbus shop illness spreads

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A worker in the shipping department at the illness-plagued Columbus Coated Fabrics plant was tested positive for a mysterious nerve ailment, a union leader said today.

The worker, Allen Pack, is the first employee in that department to be affected by the malady which has struck 54 other workers, said Corwin Smith, president of Local 487 of the Textile Workers of America.

Smith said previously only workers in the print shop and color-mixing department were affected with what doctors describe as "peripheral neuropathy" which weakens arms and legs.

Story clarified on milk problems

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Associated Press erroneously reported on Sept. 17 that a Consumers Union report on alleged lead contamination involved condensed milk. The Consumers Union report dealt with evaporated milk.

Although both products are marketed in cans, the two products are not the same.

The Food and Drug Administration challenged the Consumers Union tests and concluded: "The FDA does not consider any brand of evaporated milk now on the market to be in violation of FDA rules for safety or in any way unfit for consumer use."

Columbus youth killed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Stephen Wilson, 18, of Columbus was killed on the city's north side early today when his car skidded, flipped over several times and came to rest against a utility pole.

Rain was in Ohio's weather picture today, expected to come ahead of a low pressure system, first into western areas of the state by afternoon and spreading over the state Friday night.

A nearly stationary front extended Friday morning from Virginia and Tennessee to a low center in eastern Colorado. The warm front will push northeastward across Ohio Saturday with the low moving across the northern Great Lakes, bringing showers or thunderstorms to the southern and central counties, and a warming trend.

Afternoon temperatures are expected to

Ohio high court to review Kent dispute

Friday, September 21, 1973 Washington C.H. (O.) Record-Herald - Page 3

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) Ohio's Supreme Court has agreed to decide whether trustees of Kent State University acted legally in discontinuing its high school program.

The high court accepted Thursday a case in which counsel for a former student, Leslie Sternberg, alleged that the trustees broke a contract with students when it halted high school programs in June 1972.

Lower courts ruled, however, that in the absence of a written contract the student had no legal recourse.

The Sternberg suit asks for injunctive and declaratory relief "to do all things necessary to insure the plaintiff and class receive from the defendants what has been promised and represented to them."

In other action, the court let stand a lower court decision that freed a Cleveland man of a first degree murder charge on a ruling that his Fifth Amendment rights were violated.

The state appealed to the Supreme Court after the Cuyahoga County Court of Appeals reversed the conviction of Clifford Duncan. He had been convicted in the Jan. 15, 1970, fatal shooting of Jerry Thomas, 20, his rival for the affections of a Cleveland woman.

The appellate court ruled that Duncan did not "knowingly" waive his right to refuse to make a statement when police questioned him.

In other action, the Supreme Court refused to disturb an appellate court decision that relieved Richard Knipp of Akron of a $7,000 trial court award resulting from a traffic accident.

Knipp, who admitted liability but asked for a jury to fix damages, was sued by Rebecca Johnson of Akron. She was injured when Knipp's car crashed into her stopped vehicle on East Ave. in Akron Oct. 28, 1968.

Counsel for Knipp appealed after Knipp was cross examined at the trial as to whether he was intoxicated at the time of the accident.

The appeals court said in reversing the trial court that he could have been legally cross examined only after giving testimony that conflicted with testimony given by the plaintiff.

In another action, the Supreme Court accepted for review the reversal of a $55,000 damage award won by Merle Snow of Mount Vernon.

Snow was injured when his car struck and killed a pony on a Knox County road south of Mount Vernon April 9, 1969. The accident happened in 3 a.m. darkness.

Producers Livestock Association, owner of the animal, was sued after testimony indicated it strayed from the premises through a gate which had been left open.

In reversing the lower court award, the appeals court cited "prejudicial errors."

In another case upholding the shoplifting conviction of Barbara

Lunch of Massillon, the court ruled, in effect, that trial courts have a right to impose heavier sentences on persons found guilty than on those who plead guilty.

Two others arrested with the Lynch woman pleaded guilty and received a lighter sentence. The three were arrested in the Higbe Store in the Belden Village Shopping Center in Stark County.

2 nabbed, 1 slain in Butler manhunt

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP) — Butler County authorities today continued to question two men captured in a manhunt following a savings association robbery Thursday afternoon. A third man was shot to death during the chase.

Authorities said early today that they still did not know the names of those arrested or of the man shot to death by sheriff's deputies.

Neither of the men has been charged, deputies said.

The capture climaxed a running gun battle across Butler County that ended in a wooded area near Middletown.

The chase began shortly after the Home Federal Savings and Loan Association branch at Pisgah was robbed. Patrolman Leroy Nagle, at a police station across the street, spotted the men fleeing and pursued them.

The chase was joined by the Ohio Highway Patrol as the suspects' car, a red and white Cadillac, left town and turned onto Interstate 75. Both the police and patrol cruisers were hit by bullets, but the officers were not injured.

Police said they fired eight times at the fleeing car.

The car left I-75 at a Middletown exit and turned into a motel parking lot. Nagle said he blocked the car's path and it swerved over an embankment and into a stream.

The car's occupants fled on foot.

Authorities said the man killed was shot in a nearby woods. Police said the two others were flushed from a thicket several hours later.

Police continued to search for a fourth man until after dark. They later said they no longer believed there was a fourth man.

A housekeeper at a motel near where the men were captured said she turned over several bundles of cash and a handgun found outside a motel laundry room.

She estimated there was $6,000 to $8,000 in the bundles.

"I heard an odd noise out there, like brakes squealing," she said.

She said she saw a Cadillac stop and "these two men came rolling out of the car."

The money and gun also fell out, and a third man continued to drive over the embankment, she said.

About 100 police, including the Ohio

Highway Patrol, the FBI and local officers surrounded the area. The patrol, using an airplane and a helicopter, spotted the man who was killed.

"He was dug in so deep we could barely see him," said Franklin Police Sgt. Charles Harbach.

"He was lying face down— not moving. When we turned him over he was bleeding and the gun was under him."

The man died later at Middletown Hospital.

The other two were captured in police sweeps.

FIRST DAY OF AUTUMN
Nature starts to "turn in" for the long, cold winter ahead. Man gathers the harvest of his summer's labor. The most classic example of autumn is the squirrel storing acorns for the barren winter ahead. By instinct this small animal knows to put some away for a time of need. Emergencies arise in our lives, and we need to set some aside to meet those needs, perhaps at a time (like winter) when things won't be so bountiful. Plan now to save, each payday, a small amount of your earnings. Then when "winter" comes you'll be ready for it. And the best place to save is First Federal, where your "acorns" become "mighty oaks."

More UFOs in the South

It is somehow heartening to learn of a new rash of UFO sightings, this time in Alabama. This episode, coupled with recent doings in Georgia, suggests that it's not yet time to close the books on unidentified flying objects even though the Air Force and most of the scientific community seem of such a mind.

A WORD EDGEWISE . . . by John P. Roche

The price of liberty in Russia

It seemed too good to be true. For several years strenuous efforts have been made to regularize the funding of Radio Free Europe and Radio Liberty, the two stations — formerly financed by the CIA — that broadcast into Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union.

Last February a presidential commission, chaired by Dr. Milton Eisenhower (of which I was a member) recommended that the stations be continued and that they be funded by Congress through a Board for International Broadcasting.

The bureaucracy moved slowly, but finally a bill was submitted to Congress incorporating these proposals and authorizing $50 million for the stations.

IN THE Senate Foreign Relations Committee, Sen. Fulbright tried to block the measure, but — to make a long story short — when the vote was taken he was overwhelmed. It then was reported to the whole Senate for action on Sept. 6.

Sen. Fulbright, with Sen. Stuart Symington as his end man, again put on a desultory rear-guard action, but Sen. Charles Percy held the line with great effectiveness. When the final vote was taken, the bill passed intact, 76 to 10. (The only oddity was that Sen. George McGovern managed to vote against a bill which he had co-sponsored.)

That made it sound easy, but note that this was only an "authorization." It was not an "appropriation," which has to follow a different committee track in both houses. And the unfortunate thing about the vote was that Sens. John McClellan and John Pastore joined Fulbright in opposition.

McClellan is chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee; Pastore, chairman of the Sub-Committee of Appropriations, which deals with this legislation.

McClellan has not explained his opposition, but Pastore is in a fury over the Administration's closing of defense installations in Rhode Island, and its trade policies. Long a good soldier in the internationalist ranks, Pastore thinks that we have to take another look before we shoot our money into overseas operations.

To summarize, the 76-10 was a phantom victory. The Senate Appropriations Committee met roughly a week later and butchered the appropriation for Radio Free Europe and Radio Liberty. The House of Representatives had earlier appropriated $45 million. Now the Senate Committee cut this back to $40 million. By the time this column appears, the whole Senate may well have accepted this level.

"I miss you, Mom. The refrigerator is nearly empty and the sink is nearly full."

There was one big disappointment in Georgia. After repeated sightings of strange objects in the sky, a wondrous green, glowing cylinder found in a field turned out to be nothing more exotic than an automobile trouble flare.

But Alabama, now! There

It will be a sentence of death. The stations, located in Germany and already suffering from both inflation and the weakening of the dollar, simply cannot operate at less than the $50 million level. And even there, some drastic surgery (the elimination of broadcasts to the Soviet Far East, for example) has already taken place. Sen. Fulbright and his ideological allies, who want these "Cold War relics" eliminated as a hindrance to detente, will achieve their objective on grounds of economy.

AND THE APPALLING thing is that never in recent years have the stations been so badly needed. The only way the peoples of the Soviet Union can learn of the fearless struggle for human rights waged by Sakharov, Solzhenitsyn and their small bands of allies is by listening to Radio Liberty. Otherwise the only thing they would see and hear would be the denunciations by 20 violinists, 45 tractor mechanics, 14 shepherds, etc. that appear in the media.

Indeed, on Sept. 4, Izvestia blew its cork on the subject, attacking the stations for disseminating the writings of "moral freaks" and congratulating Sen. Fulbright for his efforts to relax tensions.

I am all for relaxing tensions, but not at the expense of "moral freaks" like Sakharov and Solzhenitsyn. The conscience of America demands that Radio Liberty and Radio Free Europe continue their broadcasts to the "muffled zones."

We have no intention of encouraging kamikaze attacks against the Communist regimes, but the least we can do is let these oppressed peoples know that they have not been forgotten.

NEW YORK (AP) — Excerpts from letters we'd like to get but the postman rarely brings:

"We are lawyers representing the late Miss Hortense McWherry, whom you probably remember as the lovely redhaired girl who jilted you in high school. Later she came to regret bitterly the shabby way she had treated you, and often said it was the biggest mistake of her lifetime, because she could never hope to attract another man as fine as you.

"In time she became a recluse and kept a candle lit under the high school yearbook picture of you she pasted on her bedroom wall. To shorten a long story, she died last week, still murmuring your name as tears rolled down her cheeks.

"Her will bequeaths you half the money in her father's residuary estate. Your share comes to $500,000. Would you like us to send it to you in bills of large or small denominations?"

Dear Jim,

My wife tells me that your wife told her that you were moping because you felt you had made a first-class fool of yourself at our cocktail party last Friday.

Nonsense, old man. You were the life of the party. It would have laid a great big ostrich egg except for the fun you provided. All the guests were crazy about you.

Don't worry about the floor lamp. It has been broken at least five times before, and anyway Marge and I only paid $6.75 for it when we bought it at a rummage sale back in 1949.

Incidentally, we want you and your wife back at a party we're having a week from next Friday. Bring your bongo drums again, I'll get out my mandolin, and we'll show the gang some real foot-stomping music.

"Because of the mild flu epidemic, our executive committee has decided to cancel the monthly meeting of the P-T A for this Thursday night.

"This will come as a double disappointment, because we won't be able to hear until a later date the scheduled address by Dr. Shotwell for the evening on "Obsessive Guilt in Preadolescent Gifted Siblings."

"We regret having to make this decision, but, considering the situation realistically, we feel it is imperative to avoid any risks of spreading the ..."

"Dear Hubby,

"I've had a pleasant two-week stay with Mother, and my only regret is that she has decided not to come home with me and spend a month with us. My sister Grace gave birth to a baby boy Tuesday, and Mother feels it is her duty to go to her and help take care of her new little grandson. I think I'll go along with her and spend a week with them, too.

"In case you're short of money, look in our old family Bible under Deuteronomy. I hid it there for emergencies. Be sure the canary gets plenty of water, and don't soak his seeds in gin before feeding him. That doesn't make him sing better. It just makes him sullen. Love and kisses, Fanny"

Your Horoscope

BY FRANCES DRAKE

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 22, 1973

ARIES
(March 21 to April 20)
There may be fewer gains now but, conversely, also fewer pitfalls: Be on the lookout for both, however. A good day for meetings, agreements involving future projects.

TAURUS
(April 21 to May 21)
If you have a tight schedule, a deadline to meet, it will be especially important to keep calm. And DO appraise situations carefully before acting. Business matters need extra vigilance.

GEMINI
(May 22 to June 21)
Avoid activities, ideas or people who are not worthwhile. Temptation sometimes comes in odd garb, so use a careful but not entirely-suspicious yardstick.

CANCER
(June 22 to July 23)
You can choose activities from several areas now, but stay within reasonable boundaries. Stellar influences, fairly auspicious, stimulate your creative leanings.

LEO
(July 24 to Aug. 23)
You should do especially well now in projects which require careful organization, clever management. Don't let opposition dissuade you.

VIRGO
(Aug. 24 to Sept. 23)
If careful to guard against impulsive acts and words, the day should be generally smooth. Gains indicated from past efforts.

LIBRA
(Sept. 24 to Oct. 23)
Think "big" and aim for top achievement. This is no day for pessimism. Concentrate on essentials, and don't overlook even the smallest of opportunities.

SCORPIO
(Oct. 24 to Nov. 22)
Opposition from unexpected sources should not disrupt routine or plans previously made. Accept all challenges with your innate sturdiness and ability.

SAGITTARIUS
(Nov. 23 to Dec. 21)
Be careful not to provoke others in business or social gatherings. You may detect flaws in the reasoning of some, but speak sparingly — and only where it will HELP.

CAPRICORN
(Dec. 22 to Jan. 20)
Stand pat on decisions which have been carefully made. Resist temptations to "forget" promises, make spur-of-the-moment changes. Some good news in the offing.

AQUARIUS
(Jan. 21 to Feb. 19)
Your active mind needs expression now. Direct it with forthright, discernment. Review investments, future plans. Changes may be required.

PISCES
(Feb. 20 to March 20)
Aspects fairly generous. Past good work should bring rewards now. In making plans, have alternatives ready.

YOU BORN TODAY are endowed with a wealth of personality, are artistically inclined and will work hard to achieve your goals. At times, however, you can be very set in your ways, thus frustrating loved ones and business associates. You are extremely versatile and could succeed in many fields; would make an outstanding scientist, an able statesman or diplomat. In the theater, you could shine as actor or director, and you could also excel as an educator or historian. Cultivate your talent for music, painting or sculpture — if only as an avocation.

Dear Abby:

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

Follow up on 'gift from God' to teach deaf

DEAR ABBY: A college girl wrote that she felt she had a "gift from God" to teach deaf people to talk, but she was "torn" because her parents feared if she pursued that profession she might end up marrying a deaf person.

May I comment? Our son, who is one of the finest speech therapist in the country, married a perfectly normal girl, but had he married one with a speech defect, we would have loved her no less.

When I saw our son take a crippled, retarded child on his lap, and help that boy utter his first audible word, I cannot explain the feeling that came over me. That boy looked up into our son's eyes as if to say, "Thank you," and my son looked down into the eyes of that child as if to say, "You are going to learn to talk!" (And subsequently the child did.)

Let me tell you, all the money in the world couldn't buy the thrill I experienced at that moment.

Thank you, Abby, for telling that girl that if she feels she has a "gift from God" to teach the deaf, to pursue that calling. She will never regret it.

PROUD FATHER

DEAR FATHER: Working with the handicapped is one of the most rewarding of all careers. It takes a special kind of human being to do it, and I sincerely believe that those who do are indeed "gifted" by God, and chosen for the privilege.

DEAR ABBY: I noticed this real pretty girl who just started to work where I work. She seemed real friendly and always smiled and said hello when she saw me. (It's a big office, and we work in different departments.)

I asked her if she liked movies and she said yes, so I asked her when I could take her to a movie of her choice, then she said she didn't like them all that much, so I let the matter drop.

A few days later, I asked her if she would like to have dinner with me at a nice restaurant, and she said she was on a diet to lose weight so there wouldn't be much point in that.

I asked her if she liked music, thinking I could take her to some kind of concert and she said music gave her a headache.

Abby, I am 27, and she's about 22, so it can't be that I'm too young for her. Please tell me how I can get a date with this girl. I am told I am a nice young man, but I must be doing something wrong. I'm no run-around, but I've never had trouble getting dates before.

BATTING ZERO

DEAR BATTING: Wake up and smell the coffee! The chemistry is wrong. She's not interested, so turn your attentions elsewhere where they'll be welcome and appreciated.

DEAR ABBY: This may help the young couple who were "in trouble" and couldn't find a minister who would marry them because neither belonged to any church:

Every commissioned officer of the Salvation Army is an ordained Christian minister, authorized to perform marriage ceremonies which will be legal and binding in every state of the U.S. Because the girl was pregnant, she couldn't have been married in the Salvation Army's chapel, but she could have a proper legal wedding.

Please pass this information on, Abby. Many may not know. I am a soldier of the corps.

Today In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Friday, Sept. 21, the 264th day of 1973. There are 101 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1949, West Germany came into formal existence as the allied high command transferred to it the U.S., British and French zones of occupation.

On this date —

In 1776, the first naval battle of the American revolution was fought on Lake Champlain.

In 1792, the French assembly voted to abolish France's monarchy.

In 1893, the first successful gasoline automobile in the United States was driven by inventor Frank Duryea at Springfield, Mass.

In 1938, Czechoslovakia announced it had agreed to cede the Sudeten area of that country to Nazi Germany.

In 1939, Russia and Germany agreed on the demarcation of Poland.

In 1945, President Harry Truman officially approved "World War II" as the title of the war which had just ended.

Ten years ago ... The Soviet government criticized China for its rejection of the treaty curbing nuclear weapons tests.

Five years ago ... Twenty three persons were injured in a 35-vehicle chain collision in fog on the New Jersey turnpike.

One year ago ... For the first time since March of 1965, a week had passed without American combat deaths in the Indochina war.

Today's birthdays: Pianist Gyorgy Sandor is 61.

Thought for today: The only time a horse gets scared nowadays is when he meets another horse — the late humorist Will Rogers.

Wage and salary rates rose about 7 per cent in 1972, and food prices went up about 6 per cent.

St. Benignus Church is setting for Uhl-Jenkins wedding rites

Miss Denise Uhl and Larry D. Jenkins exchanged marriage vows during Nuptial Mass Sept. 8 in St. Benignus Catholic Church in Greenfield. Rev. Fr. Harold J. Bernard performed the double ring ceremony at 10:30 a.m. for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Uhl Jr., Greenfield, and the son of Mrs. Robert E. Newell of Good Hope, and the late Alfred Jenkins. Eddie Dettwiller and David Zoldak were the acolytes.

Mrs. Ralph W. Phillips, organist, presented a half-hour of prelude music and accompanied the vocalist, Charles Wehner of Greenfield.

White Grecian urns arranged with disbuds in fall colors, amber and gold pompons and greenery, graced the main altar, sentineled by candles in gold holders. On the side altars were the same flowers in keeping with the color theme. Seven branch candelabra at each side of the altar held tall white tapers and were entwined with ivy and lily of the valley. White bows with a cascade of ivy and the same white blossoms marked the family pews.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a bridal gown of pure silk organza and Venise lace over taffeta, styled with V-neckline and sheer bishop sleeves enhanced with Venise lace. The flared skirt was full in the back, and had double rows of the same lace at the hemline. Her cathedral length mantilla styled veil of sheer illusion was edged with matching imported lace. Her only jewelry was a gold locket, a gift from the groom. She carried a Victorian bouquet of pale yellow sweetheart roses, white poms and babies' breath.

At the close of the ceremony, the bride and groom, placed a single yellow rose on the side altar dedicated to the Blessed Mary.

Miss Michele Uhl was maid of honor for her sister. Another sister, Annette Uhl, was junior bridesmaid, along with the Misses Elaine Hardy and Mary Jane Vergotz, bridesmaids. They wore identical floor length gowns with ruffled hemlines and ivory lace bodices. The green crepe and ivory lace were repeated in the Juliet sleeves and high necklines. Matching green tinted flat poms and ivy leaves at the back of their hair complimented their gowns. They carried arrangements of autumn toned disbuds, amber and gold daisy poms and greenery with matching variegated showers.

The bride's mother wore a floor length beige gown with matching lace bodice and long lace sleeves. She wore a corsage of green carnations. The groom's mother wore an aqua A-line gown with long sleeves of silk organza and satin trim. She wore a corsage of pale yellow sweetheart rosebuds.

Mrs. Zelda Armstrong of Streator, Ill., maternal grandmother of the groom, wore an A-line styled dress of Mrs. Hurtt presented the program using the Cassette of Missionaries and read Scripture from the Book of Hebrews.

MR. AND MRS. LARRY D. JENKINS

China blue nylon lace over matching satin with pleated collar and a corsage of pink mums.

Robert E. Newell served as best man. Pat Denehy, Steve George, David Catanzaro and Steve Parker were the ushers.

The same autumn decor was carried out for the reception at the Terrace Lounge which followed. White cloths adorned the tables and appointed in crystal and silver. The tiered pedastaled wedding cake was decorated with florets and topped with a straw floral arrangement. Punch and party foods were served. For the ensuing luncheon a flower arrangement adorned the bride's table, in the dining room. Mrs. Barbara Linton, sister of the groom, presided at the guest book.

Senior hostesses were Mrs. Rodney Rich and Mrs. Donald Hindes. Misses Mary Ann Fortkamp, Sarah Leibold, Beverly Boyd and Mrs. Steve Parker presided at the serving table.

Mr. and Mrs. Newell, the groom's parents, entertained the bridal party and out-of-town guests at the rehearsal dinner the evening preceding the wedding at Wardell's Party Home.

When the couple left for the wedding trip to Canada, Niagara Falls and

Rochester, N.Y., the bride was wearing a two piece outfit of floral print on green crepe with contrasting accessories.

Mrs. Jenkins is a graduate of McClain High School and the University of Dayton. Prior to summer employment at Duncan and Phillips, attorneys at law in Greenfield, she was on the social work staff at Catholi Social Services in Dayton. Her husband, a graduate of McClain, has completed courses at

Perrills visit Rev. and Mrs. Simmons

Dr. Charles V. Perrill and his wife Dr. Wilma Conger Perrill were recent visitors of the Rev. and Mrs. H.A. Simmons, 219 Gardner Court. Dr. Perrill, Professor of Surgery at the Ohio Medical College in Toledo, had been in Dayton where he attended the Ohio Chapter of the American College of Surgeons. For 21 years Dr. Perrill and Mrs. Perrill were missionary doctors at Clara Swain Hospital in Bareilly, India.

Dr. Wilma Perrill handled a great volume of the work by taking over the specialties of obstetrics, gynecology and pediatrics. Her husband acted as surgeon, internist, administrator, architect, superintendent of construction and fund raiser.

Upon leaving India, the hospital had expanded into a modern 300-bed hospital. At the end of the 21 years, they agreed to go to The Creighton Freeman Hospital in the holy city of Vrindaban, North India. Construction of a new hospital was well under way by the time they had to leave in 1971. They now reside in Lakeside.

The Perrills are both graduates of the Northwestern University Medical School in Chicago, Ill., and are Methodists.

TV Viewing

By JAY SHARBUTT
NEW YORK (AP) — There's good news today for Watergate buffs. The three networks say they'll again take turns providing live TV coverage of the Senate Watergate hearings, which resume Monday.

But there's bad news for daytime Watergate viewers. The networks say they'll only cover the hearings live next week. And there won't be any live coverage of the hearings on public TV at all this time.

There'll only be three days of hearings next week — Monday through Wednesday — and it'll be a pattern generally followed until Nov. 1, when this round of testimony is scheduled to end.

Under a plan agreed on by the networks this week, ABC provides live coverage of Monday's session, NBC takes over on Tuesday and CBS has the duty on Wednesday. Each network has the option of carrying the hearings live any day it isn't scheduled to do so.

The networks say they'll "terminate their experimental (rotation) system" after Wednesday's session, although network spokesmen say this doesn't necessarily mean the end of a revolving era.

They say continued rotation coverage in future weeks is possible, but that it'll require a new agreement among the networks. However, no negotiations to that end are planned right now.

The networks adopted the rotational plan last June 5 to lessen the uproar from viewers deprived of game shows and soap operas and to reduce the loss of advertising dollars as the hearings wore on.

They don't say how much the loss came to for the first 37 days of televised testimony, but Broadcasting magazine, a leading trade publication, estimates it at between $7 million to $10 million.

The hearings, which began May 17, were televised live from start to finish for Eastern Educational Network stations by the National Public Affairs Center for Television. But NPACT isn't doing it this time.

It says the stations are broadcasting school service programs and Watergate coverage would conflict with those shows.

But it says it will videotape each day's hearings in full for the Public Broadcasting Service, which in turn will replay the tapes for its 239 member stations at 8 p.m. EDT.

Ohio Perspective

1974 legislative session looms as political forum

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Next year's session of the 110th General Assembly will be a forum for those seeking re-election, including Gov. John J. Gilligan.

Republicans in the legislature, who dominated both Houses in the 109th but control only the Senate by one-vote in the 110th, will attempt to take credit for some laws, disavow others.

The GOP will be hard put to take credit for tax reform while blaming Gilligan for the state income tax it brought into being.

The tax was passed in the 109th when the GOP was solidly in control.

Voters rejected, 2-1, a proposal to repeal the tax, but many politicians think the income tax even so didn't make either party all that popular.

Many political observers believe defeat of repeal came about because repealers were not offering any alternative. Parents were afraid there would be a widespread closing of schools.

Gilligan promised the tax in his campaign and then saw it through. Republicans gave it to him, with the strategy they would blame him for it in 1974.

Many of those won't be around to blame anybody. They were defeated in the 1972 elections.

The federal grand jury that studied the $50,000 alleged bribery attempt to secure Ohio Department of Commerce favors sweltered in the 90-plus temperatures at the federal building.

Although the building was recently remodeled and air conditioned at a cost over $1 million, the air conditioning had been turned off on orders from Washington.

The General Services Administration, a U.S. District Court official said, ordered it off in offices throughout the country as the federal government's part in alleviating the energy crisis.

"I'll bet they didn't turn it off in the Rayburn Building where the congressmen have offices," the official said.

It's tough and it's going to get tougher.

You can hardly find a place to park or to eat now in downtown Columbus, but wait until next year. When the new 41-story state office is fully occupied, officials estimate, another 200-300 cars will join the downtown jam and 3,500 employees will be looking for midday food.

The new skyscraper doesn't have a garage, but George F. Busche, executive director of the Ohio Building Authority, said the new building will have three separate vending machine areas accommodating 165 persons each.

"It will be good food, quality food," Busche said.

"We'll see," said one state employee being transferred into the huge building.

Probe burning death

MONROE, Mich. (AP)—Authorities were still investigating the cause of death of a Toledo, Ohio, man whose charred body was found Thursday in a wooded Monroe County nursery.

Police identified the man as Carlus B. Maltiba, 32.

Rule slayer may collect

RAVENNA, Ohio (AP)—A Portage County judge has ruled that Danny Lee Bragg, 43, who killed his wife three years ago, has the right to collect on her $27,000 insurance policy.

Bragg was found innocent by reason of insanity in 1972 in the shooting death of his wife, June.

The couple's daughter, Deborah, asked Common Pleas Court to rule whether she or her father, who was primary beneficiary in the policy, should receive the money.

Judge Albert Caris ruled that Ohio law does not prevent an insane person from sharing in an estate.

The money is to be held in trust for Bragg, who is a patient at Lima State Hospital.

Grand jury backs guns

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The outgoing Cuyahoga County grand jury has issued a report supporting firearms in the home and suggesting possible castration of repeat sex criminals.

The jury foreman, real estate man Edward Rybka, also said in his 15-page report that "fear of the black crime image is the number one deterrent to any viable open-housing movement."

The report criticized conditions at City Jail and accused certain judges of laxity, including visiting judges, who Rybka said are "too soft when they should be tough."

In supporting guns in the home, the report says "the responsibility for protecting private property has shifted from government to the public" since today many institutions have their own security forces.

He and Mrs. Patterson have three children, all at home. They are living in Springfield now, but expect to move to Washington C.H. within a year. Meanwhile, Patterson plans to commute. He succeeds Carl Wilt, who resigned after 31 years as manager to enter the auctioneering profession.

Sohio hikes gasoline price by 1 penny

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The Standard Oil Co. (Ohio) boosted gasoline prices one cent per gallon today.

A company official said Sohio recognizes that some independent dealers will be hurt by a wholesale price increase which accompanied the boost in prices at company-owned stations.

The new retail prices announced for company-owned stations is 38.9 cents per gallon for regular and 42.9 cents for premium.

Wholesale prices to dealers were increased one cent per gallon, but the new prices were not disclosed.

Standard said the new retail prices will apply also to Boron Oil Co. stations in West Virginia, western Pennsylvania, northern Kentucky, lower Michigan and Indiana.

Robert G. Griffin, Sohio vice president for marketing, said Sohio recognized that dealers "who have not raised their pump prices will be penalized by the Cost of Living Council's current ruling that price increases cannot be passed through to their customers."

Griffin said a recent survey indicates that many dealers in the Cleveland, Akron, Cincinnati and Toledo areas were posting pump prices already of 38.9 cents per gallon or more, "giving them sufficient margins to be able to absorb the one cent wholesale price increase."

Griffin said Sohio supports "the reported intent of the Cost of Living Council" to let dealers raise their prices to reflect higher wholesale costs.

He said the price hike, the first for Sohio in nearly three years, represents "only 60 per cent of the allowable increase under Phase IV."

School strike hits Vinton

McARTHUR, Ohio (AP) — Teachers struck the Vinton County school system early today after contract talks broke down.

Schools had been open in the county on a day-to-day basis since the school year began.

Bill McNickle, president of the local teachers association, said the main points at issue are dismissal policies and grievance procedures. He said teachers have been concerned since five of them were dismissed following the school year last spring.

McNickle said all 113 teachers at the county's six schools were staying away from classes today. Picket lines were reported in front of the schools.

Melvin's Woe wins Lil' Brown Jug

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP) — "I'm sure glad he was game enough," Joe O'Brien said of 1973 Little Brown Jug winner Melvin's Woe. "That's why I have so many grey hairs."

There never may be a gamer Jug victor than the son of Bret Hanover. He won the first division in 4:57 3-5 and the raceoff in 1:59 2-5 to grab pacing's third jewel of the Triple Crown.

Melvin's Woe's front legs are in such bad shape that they required treatment between his impressive heat victories at the Delaware County Fairgrounds. "I stood him in whirlpool boots between heats," O'Brien explained.

Whirlpool boots are portable baths containing swirling ice and water that prevented swelling in the winner's gimpy legs.

"He's had something wrong his whole career," said O'Brien after driving his second Jug victory. He previously won with Shadow Way, another bad-legged colt in 1958.

"First, he had calcium on his hocks last year," O'Brien continued. "And he's had more leg problems this year. Just last month, he aggravated a right, front tendon at Indianapolis."

But Melvin's Woe, owned by Cleveland coal broker Thurman Downing, shakes off injuries as well as opponents.

Melvin's Woe, who next races in the $60,000 Tattersalls Sept. 29 at Lexington, Ky., now has 17 victories in 27 career starts for a bankroll of more than $157,000. He picked up $44,400 for his Jug victory.

His twin come-from-behind victories split the 1973 Triple Crown three ways. Valiant Bret, third behind Armbro Nesbit and Melvin's Woe in the Jug raceoff, won the first leg of The Messenger and Smog, who didn't make the third heat here, took the second jewel, The Cane Pace.

Melvin's Woe slipped three horses wide in the backstretch and rolled to a 2 3-4 length decision over Valiant Bret in the first division.

The raceoff was much tougher. Melvin's Woe, boxed in by Gay Skipper in the third position along the rail, found room along the rail in mid-stretch. He won by a neck over stable-mate Armbro Nesbit.

Six SCOL squads in final tuneups

Six of the seven South Central Ohio League football teams will finish preparations for the 46th league championship bash with their final tuneup contests, against non-league opponents tonight.

Miami Trace will be the only SCOL team not opening its league-schedule Sept. 29 while the six other members will be plunging headlong into the championship race.

The SCOL teams will be hoping to improve a 5-9 record against non-league teams in tonight's action. The SCOL members posted a 13-15-1 record against non-loop teams a year ago.

Tonight's action finds Miami Trace entertaining a winless Columbus Bishop Ready team and Washington C.H. traveling to Portsmouth.

Head coach Fred Zechman's Panthers will be hoping to snap a brief one-game losing spin when the point-starved Silver Knights come calling for the 8 p.m. contest at Miami Trace Field.

Columbus Ready has absorbed two straight shutouts this season as Washington C.H. blanked the Knights 21-0 two weeks ago and Marion Franklin chalked up a 14-0 win last Friday night. Miami Trace has a painful, year long memory about Columbus Ready as it was the Silver Knights who cracked the Panthers' winning skein at 12 games in a row last autumn.

MIAMI TRACE will also be hoping to rebound from a 12-0 setback at Columbus Bexley last week.

The toughest task to date looms for Washington C.H.'s Blue Lions in a risky road trip to Portsmouth tonight.

The Lions, who have zoomed to a perfect 2-0 record behind a penny-pinching defense, will meet head coach Roger Merb's Trojans, who have also relied on a stubborn defense in posting a 1-1 record.

Portsmouth's record is 1-1. The Trojans, who have also relied on a stubborn defense in posting a 1-1 record, allowed only one touchdown in last

MT frosh deadlock in campaign debut

The Miami Trace freshman gridders opened their 1973 campaign at Mount Logan Junior High School in Chillicothe Thursday night with a 14-14 tie.

Owning the lead in total offense with 201 yards to 84 yards for the hosts, Miami Trace could only score two times, a feat that Mount Logan had few problems in matching.

In the first quarter, Bill Warnock plunged over from one-yard out, but the extras failed and Miami Trace owned a 6-0 lead.

Then in the second quarter Mount Logan came back with a 35-yard pass play and a two point conversion to take the lead at the half 8-6.

MIDWAY THROUGH the third stanza, Neil Spears connected with Danny Gifford for a 45-yard score and Rex Coe scored on the extras to hand the Panthers a 14-6 lead.

Bob Smith leads B.C. Open

ENDICOTT, N.Y. (AP) — If you could believe Bob E. Smith, he'd be home today in California nursing a couple of slashed wrists and through with golf.

But no one believed him Thursday at the En-Joie Golf Club, where he fired a sizzling six-under-par 65 to take a first-round lead in the $100,000 B.C. Open Golf Championship.

"My game really fell apart this year," he said. "I missed five cuts and really was discouraged."

Then, in jest, he added:

"I considered going to Sacramento to week's 23-6 loss to a strong Ironton team. Ironton scored on a blocked punt and an intercepted pass.

The Washington C.H. defense will be gunning for its third consecutive shutout of the season after blanking Bishop Ready and Chillicothe in its previous encounters this fall.

Ashland win string at stake Saturday

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — One week Ashland is very offensive and the next week very defensive, but the Eagles keep right on winning no matter what path they take.

The nation's ninth-ranked college division football team rolled up 503 yards and 34 points in an opening triumph over Franklin. Last week the Eagles managed only 215 yards and 14 points in a victory over Gustavus Adolphus.

The performances jumped Ashland's winning streak to 13 games, second only to Heidelberg's 14 as the leader among Ohio's 34 football-playing colleges.

This week Ashland plays visiting Edinboro (Pa.) State in an independent night game. The contest is one of 25 for Ohio squads this weekend.

"I don't think I ever have seen as much improvement in one week as we had on defense," said Ashland Coach Fred Martinielli.

"That was one of our best defensive games in the last three years."

The Eagles socked Gustavus Adolphus for 66 yards in pass losses and the losers threw 21 straight pass

In the fourth quarter, Chillicothe scored on a 40-yard run up the middle to tie the game at 14-14 with the extra point failing.

Coach Joe Henry, who had just taken over at the helm last week, pointed out that the defensive front four was very impressive in the opening game. Henry also said that Gifford was on the receiving end of three passes for a total of 73 yards along with 17 yards rushing for a fine 90-yard total. Bill Warnock was also praised for his 47-yard total rushing mark.

The Miami Trace freshman almost scored late in the fourth quarter when Crabtree recovered a fumble on the 10-yard line, but time ran out before they could connect on a scoring punch.

Next week Miami Trace plays host to the Washington C.H. freshman team. This should be another fine game between the two arch-rivals.

cut my wrists and give up the game."

But he said great things have happened to him in the last six weeks.

"My game turned around. I don't know why."

Smith, whose tour earnings have ranged from $22,851 to $44,595 in his first five years as a pro, has picked up $28,462 this year. He said, "About $20,000 came in the last six weeks."

Smith was on the course when Jim Dent and Jim Grant walked from the 18th green with 66s on their cards. Their performances put them ahead of nine colleagues who turned in identical 68s.

Mets squeeze NL East race

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Somebody up there likes the New York Mets. Or doesn't like the Pittsburgh Pirates. Or both.

"You've got to believe that someone is watching over us," says Met infielder Wayne Garrett, "and I hope He stays there."

Garrett and the rest of the Mets are more convinced than ever that there's a division title, at the very least, in their immediate future after Thursday night's remarkable 4-3, 13-inning victory over the Pirates.

The win boosted New York into second place in the furious National League East race. Only three games separate the first five teams with just over one week to go.

The Mets are one-half game back of the front-running Bucs. The third-place Montreal Expos, 5-4 losers to the Chicago Cubs, are one game behind. The St. Louis Cardinals, who dropped a Heidelberg, meanwhile, shoots for the 15th straight triumph at Otterbein, also at night.

Lion frosh lose

Mickle notches 50th as junior high boss

The Washington C.H. junior high football team opened its 1973 season with a smashing 26-16 victory over Circleville Thursday evening at Gardner Park.

At the same time, in Circleville, the Washington C.H. freshman football team was taking a beating at the hands of the Circleville freshman team, 30-6.

Jeff Elliott, a fleet-footed halfback, scored three touchdowns, one on a 70-yard runback of a Circleville punt, to lead the way in a fine performance by the Washington C.H. team.

The win over the Tigers marked Coach Rodger Mickle's 50th victory in 11 seasons, bringing Mickle's record to 50 wins, three losses and one tie.

Elliott also scored on a 15-yard pass from Devik Hargo, with Hargo carrying the extra's, to cap a first quarter, 17-play drive.

Following the punt return by Elliott, Hargo again connected, this time to Terry Wilson for a 14-yard aerial score. With the extras failing, the Blue Lions took a breather at halftime leading 20-0.

In the third quarter, Elliott again hit paydirt, only this time on a beautiful trap play that totaled 23 yards. The extra point attempt failed and the Lions held the edge at 26-0.

Circleville finally scored on a 55-yard run up the middle in the third period, and again on a 16-yard run in the fourth quarter, against the back-up boys, for a final score of 26-16.

Coach Mickle singled out Elliott, Hargo and Gregg Tillett on offense, Gary Huysman, Doug Stewart and Elliott on defense, as the outstanding players of the game.

Meanwhile, in Circleville, the Blue Lions freshman team could manage only one touchdown, late in the fourth quarter, but gave up four to the Tigers plus four extra point runs to go down in defeat 30-6.

In a lackluster performance by Coach John Skinner's freshman, the only bright spots were Ted Mercer, who scored the lone touchdown for the Lions, and Scott Johnson, who was at quarterback for the first time.

Giants 7, Reds 5

Left-hander Ron Bryant lasted into the seventh inning and that was long enough to pick up his 23rd victory against 11 losses. The Giants struck for six runs in the third inning, three of them scoring on a basesloaded triple by Chris Speier.

San Francisco reliever Elias Sosa recorded his 17th save and set a club record with his 68th appearance of the season.

Dodgers 5, Braves 3

Dave Lopez drilled a two-run homer off Roric Harrison in the 12th inning to account for the Dodgers' victory. Willie Crawford belted a pair of homers for Los Angeles and reliever Charlie Hough got the win.

Hank Aaron didn't hit any home runs but he made up for it with a pair of doubles and a single for the Braves. Aaron still needs three homers to tie Babe Ruth's all-time record of 714.

BILLIE JEAN KING

King whips Riggs

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

"Riggs has hustled himself right into oblivion," said Cathy Knudson, 22, social worker.

"So what does it prove. A good woman player can beat a 55-year-old man," said Carlos Fernandez, 46, painter. Both are of Miami.

It may not have proved anything in particular, that Astrodome show business spectacular. Except that Bobby Riggs' ultimate hustle fell flat on its male chauvinist face before the onslaught of feminist Billie Jean King. Her straight set victory in tennis' Battle of the Sexes left some women ecstatic and some men thinking of excuses.

"I won five bucks from my husband," said Mrs. Brian King, a Miami housewife. "He was so upset after the second set he went out and walked the dog." Which is exactly what some women said Riggs should have been doing.

"I think it's just great," said Mrs. Ruth Curth, who invited 12 persons to her Long Island home for a television-watching party. She outfitted her six female guests in T-shirts emblazoned with "You've come a long way, baby," and said they'd all wear them to work today.

"I feel he's just conning her into another match," said Stuart Marshall, who attended a jet-setter party on Manhattan's fashionable Sutton Place. Just before the match was over Marshall said he believed Riggs, whose hustling exploits became legend after his Mothers Day whomping of Australian Margaret Court, had conned his audience into thinking he'd be beaten. "Now he's going to make his move," Marshall said.

The only major move Riggs made after that was to congratulate Mrs. King, a five-time Wimbledon champion who said the victory in the $100,000 winner-take-all production was her finest hour. The spectacular also will bring both Riggs and Mrs. King tens of thousands of dollars in endorsements.

Willie Mays finally bows to his years

NEW YORK (AP) — He came up as the "Say Hey" kid, a shy 20-year-old with a squeaky voice and a world of potential; over the next 22 years he fulfilled that promise beyond all expectations, becoming a model of the complete baseball player.

Thursday, Willie Mays, his 42-year-old body still trim and muscular but his once-magnificent skills diminished by nagging injuries and the ravages of time, announced his retirement from the game with which his name had become synonymous.

Mays will complete the season with the New York Mets, who are in the middle of a tight National League East pennant scramble.

Baseball players are judged by their abilities in five categories: running, fielding, throwing, hitting and hitting with power.

Mays excelled in all. Hitting? Mays compiled a lifetime batting average of .302, 10 times better than the .300 mark. Power? His 660 homers are the third-highest total in the history of the game, behind only Babe Ruth and Hank Aaron.

He was a daredevil on the basepaths, four times leading the National League in stolen bases and breaking up countless games by forcing other players into mistakes with his speed and guile.

His fielding—marked by the distinctive "basket catch" which was his trademark—became the standard by which other outfielders were measured, and runners learned quickly the futility of challenging his strong, accurate throwing arm.

One week remains for PP&K hopefuls

There is just one week remaining for youngsters in Fayette County to register for the local Punt, Pass and Kick contest.

David Ogan, the Ford dealer here sponsoring the popular youth activity, said that registrations would be taken through Friday, Sept. 28 at the Carroll Halliday Ford dealership in Washington C.H.

The PP&K contest will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 29 at Gardner Park Stadium.

A clinic for any interested youth entering the contest will be held from 1 until 3 p.m. Saturday at Gardner Park. Fred Domenico, director of the contest here, will conduct the clinic.

Pony grid openers scheduled Saturday

The five teams in the Washington C.H. Pony Football League will launch the league's 16th season Saturday night at Gardner Park Stadium.

As usual, two games are on tap for Saturday night's opening round.

In Saturday's opening games, the defending champion Interns will clash with Frisch's Big Boys in the 6 p.m. contest while the Marksmen and the Jaycees will buck headgear in the 7:30 p.m. nightcap.

Domenico's Dividends have this week's bye.

JUDGING FROM the annual preview games held last Saturday night at Gardner Park, the league appears to be balanced.

Only three teams managed to score touchdowns in last week's preview games, and quite ironically all the touchdowns were scored against the Marksmen. But, all five teams have had a week to iron out any bugs from the preview games and a tight race is expected.

The Jaycees were the most prolific team in the preview games as they dented the scoreboard with 14 points while the Interns and Frisch's Big Boys both scored one touchdown apiece.

Customs director looks back

By JERRY HARKAVY
PORTLAND, Maine (AP) — While most people would be content with one successful career, Lucia M. Cormier is now well into her fourth.

A former teacher, businesswoman and politician, Miss Cormier has served for the past dozen years as collector, then district director of U.S. Customs for Maine.

"I look back on every one of my careers, and they contributed to a very rewarding and enriching life," she said. As a teacher, Miss Cormier served for 14 years as head of the modern language department at Stephens High School in her native Rumford, then quit in 1945 to open a gift and stationery shop.

THAT SAME YEAR, she attended a Rumford Democratic town committee meeting as "something to do for an evening" and got her first taste of politics.

Two years later, she was a state representative; in three, Maine's Democratic National committeewomen; in five, her party's nominee for Congress.

She lost that race to Rep. Robert Hale and was defeated in a 1960 Senate bid by the GOP incumbent, Margaret Chase Smith, in the nation's first senatorial contest between two women.

"With me, politics was always an avocation, never a vocation," Miss Cormier said in an interview in her spacious office in the U.S. Customhouse near the Portland waterfront. "I was self-employed at the time, and I was never trying to earn a livelihood in politics. It was a hobby."

A SUPPORTER of the proposed Equal Rights Amendment to the U.S. Constitution, she questions some of the methods used by women's liberation groups.

"I believe in dissent, but when they're not ladylike in their approach, I just don't feel they're accomplishing much."

"I believe femininity is a part of our makeup, and anything unladylike doesn't get us anywhere."

Miss Cormier feels she has never been discriminated against in politics because of her sex.

Hunting, Fishing Day set Saturday

With an emphasis on conservation of natural resources, 11 Fayette County organizations will join the Fayette County Fish and Game Association in celebrating National Hunting and Fishing Day Saturday at the association's lodge on Stafford Road.

Five local Boy Scout troops plan to contribute to the public's knowledge of practical conservation at the NHF Day program. Troop 67's display will depict a common sense approach to conservation and show some wrong as well as right ways to help preserve natural resources.

Troop 152 will assist with parking, attendance taking, guiding visitors to the day's events as well as be displaying some of their own woodcraft projects. Troops 112 and 748 will join forces to provide a first aid station and on-the-spot litter collection to help dramatize that problem. Troop 229 will erect two camp sites, a neat and orderly one and a deliberately untidy and littered one. Visitors will readily see the importance of keeping a clean camp site.

will be well-represented at the NHF Day activities. Their display will include a continuous slide show featuring local 4-H projects, woodworking and a special segment of slides entitled "Mulligan's Stew," which promotes good nutrition. Some of the county's top award-winning 4-H members will be explaining various soil and water conservation programs and will be handing out literature on these subjects.

Five of Fayette County's Garden Clubs have prepared 15 unusual display items for the NHF Day visitors to observe. The Fayette Garden Club will provide wreathes made of locally collected natural materials.

The Posy Club will display arrangements of dried weeds. The Town and Country Club is planning a display based on an ecology theme, and the Twin Oaks Club members will exhibit decorative items which they've made of driftwood and pictures made of different kinds of seeds.

The Washington C.H. Garden Club's display will depict the techniques for drying and preserving plants so they can be used for decorations.

JERRY CREMEANS, Fayette County's game protector, will provide a display from the Ohio Division of Wildlife. He will show a series of wildlife movies throughout the day and have several unusual display boards on hand.

In addition to the many different conservation-oriented displays, the local observance of National Hunting and Fishing Day will feature a number of special exhibitions and five skill centers where visitors will be able to try some of the popular outdoor sports.

The program will begin at 9 a.m. Saturday with a combat pistol shooting exhibition, one of six special shooting exhibits. Admission and all events are free of charge. Lunch will be served from 11:30 a.m. until 1:30 p.m.

Youth evades officers but is found 'asleep'

Employees of Hidy's Foods saw a 16-year-old Washington C.H. boy taking a pack of cigarettes from their store and in an attempt to catch him initiated a "Keystone Kops" chase that continued on foot through the city, behind the railroad tracks on W. Court Street. Before it was over officers from the sheriff's department and city police joined in the melee.

subsequently made the arrest.

On his way back to the store one of the employees began smoking the "evidence" and had to be reminded to save it for Juvenile Court.

Break-in discovered by police

While on routine patrol Thursday night, city Patrolman Dennis Brown found that a window of the Montgomery Ward's Tire Shop had been broken and the building entered. Coins were taken from a soft drink vending machine inside.

Mildred Queen, of Bogus Rd., reported that two juveniles threw a rock through the glass of the rear door window of her car while it was parked on Willard Street about 8:30 p.m. Thursday.

The youth fled the store, throwing the pack of cigarettes at one of the employees in pursuit. After being found in some bushes where he had attempted to hide, he darted down Columbus Avenue to Court Street. A few alleys later, the youth crossed the railroad tracks behind Montgomery Wards and disappeared.

Officers from the police and sheriff's departments, who were just arriving on the scene, acted on some reliable information and found the boy "asleep" at his residence. He was perspiring heavily.

They then questioned him and

Mom talks to newsmen on sextuplets

DENVER (AP) — "If they put them all together I wouldn't know which was which, except for Catherine," says the mother of the Stanek sextuplets.

Catherine is the lone girl among the five survivors.

"I've only seen them once and, no, I can't tell them apart," said Edna Stanek, 34, in her first meeting with the news media.

"They're not too individual right now," she said Thursday. "They're very tiny. There are tubes and wires connected to them that are helping them along."

"John's pretty lively," she said. Looking tired but relaxed, Mrs. Stanek said, "I feel a lot better today because the news (about the children's health) has been so much more promising than it has been."

John and Jeffrey were in good condition Thursday night. Steven, Nathan and Catherine were in satisfactory condition and using respirators to help them breathe, according to Dr. James Strain, a pediatrician at Colorado General Hospital.

He said all five were improving.

The sextuplets were born Sunday night about six weeks premature. Julia died Tuesday night from hyaline membrane disease, which coats the lungs with a film.

State welcome to set priorities for heating oil

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)— The state is welcome to set its own priorities for fuel oil allocations from Standard Oil Co. (Ohio) this winter, a company spokesman says after meeting with state officials.

The spokesman, Sohio President Alton W. Whitehouse, added that he not only didn't object to the idea, "but we are pleased to see the state government recognizes that priorities must be established because of the fuel shortage."

Sohio recently told the state that this winter's supplies would be no more than the state used last year. The state had estimated the need would be more than twice the nearly 5.5 million gallons of fuel oil it used last winter.

A state spokesman said some planned conversions from coal to fuel oil would be held up and that some heating plants already switched over would be reconverted to coal.

Kahoutek comet expected to be space spectacular

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — If it measures up to expectations, the 1973 Kohoutek comet will far outshine the famous Halley's comet of 1910.

Astronomers at the Fernbank Science Center here and scientists at observatories around the world are preparing to study the rare phenomenon, which may be bright enough to be seen in daylight.

The Kohoutek comet will appear late in November and remain visible to the naked eye until mid-February.

After Dec. 28, the comet will begin to increase in brilliance.

Astronomer Bob Hayward says that at its brightest, the comet could be 100 times more brilliant than the brightest star and its tail could extend in an arc 60 degrees from earth's horizon.

Hayward said some scientific calculations indicate the comet is streaking toward the sun from some 279 billion miles out in space. That's beyond Pluto, the most distant known planet in our solar system.

The comet's elliptical orbit around the sun indicates it is part of the solar system. Astronomers predict the comet will not reappear for 50,000 years if it remains within the sun's gravitational pull.

The comet, named for the West German astronomer who discovered it, will pass within 75 million miles of the earth. It will fly within 13.2 million miles of the sun on Dec. 28 and then head back into the far reaches of its orbit.

Hundreds of comets are known to men but only a few have ever been bright enough to be perceived by the naked eye. Halley's Comet is one of the most well known. It is expected to swing into view in 1986.

Richard Williamon, a colleague of Hayward, says some astronomers believe that a swarm of comets surround the solar system, several trillion miles from earth.

Comets are believed to be frozen gases and other matter, said Williamon. The tails are formed as they vaporize on approach to the sun and the solar wind forces the vapor to stream out behind them, he said.

Although the mass of the Kohoutek comet may only comprise about one-billionth that of the earth, the entire phenomenon from the head to the end of its fiery tail can cover millions of square miles and actually become the largest thing in the solar system.

Extend U.S. ban on sterilization

WASHINGTON (AP) — A government ban on federally funded sterilization of young girls and mentally incompetent women has been extended 30 days while new regulations to protect their rights are circulated for public comment.

The moratorium was imposed last July by the secretary of Health, Education and Welfare after a Mon-

Nixon, Agnew hold meeting

WASHINGTON (AP) — Amid continuing rumors that Vice President Spiro T. Agnew may be considering resigning, he and President Nixon held a lengthy private meeting Thursday afternoon.

A White House spokesman said today that, "the President and the vice president both agreed there would be no report or discussion on the meeting."

Further, the spokesman said, the two agreed that "there would be no discussion or comment on the various rumors and stories based on unidentified sources." This referred to the continuing reports, including one from a high Republican source, that there was a likelihood of Agnew's resigning in the very near future.

The President and Agnew held their hour-long meeting in the Executive Office Building. Deputy White House Press Secretary Gerald L. Warren said both had agreed "that no one on the White House staff or the vice president's staff was authorized to discuss this matter."

It was the first substantive face-to-face meeting between the two since Sept. 1, when Nixon returned from a two-week stay in California and made a session with Agnew his first order of business in Washington.

Since then, they have met on three occasions, but White House spokesmen indicated they did not have a chance for any substantial discussion.

Agnew gains support

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew's office says there has been "overwhelming" public support for him following reports that he might resign because of involvement in a federal investigation.

An account of the response in the past two days was given amid signs that the inquiry into alleged political kickbacks was moving again on the strength of a decision by Atty. Gen. Elliot L. Richardson to submit data concerning Agnew to a grand jury.

Agnew aides said that as of Thursday afternoon 664 letters and telegrams had been received urging Agnew not to quit, and nine others calling on him to do so. They said, hundreds of phone calls had been received — all favorable to the vice president.

J. Marsh Thomson, Agnew's press secretary, called it "a terribly impressive and overwhelming public reaction."

The letters and phone calls were spurred by a newspaper report saying a senior Republican figure had predicted Agnew would resign, probably this week, because of the investigation. The vice president faces possible charges of extortion, bribery, tax fraud and conspiracy stemming from the time he was a county executive and governor of Maryland.

Agnew, who has denied any wrong doing, refused to comment on report but aides were emphatic in saying he would not resign and was determined to fight the case in court.

With the grand jury resuming its secret deliberations in Baltimore, U.S. Atty. George Beall Jr., who is leading the probe, has been in Washington in recent days conferring with Justice Department officials.

gomery County, Ala., man charged that his daughters, aged 12 and 14, had been permanently sterilized without his understanding of the procedure.

The proposed regulations, published in the Federal Register Thursday, would provide federal protection of the rights of minors and the mentally incompetent for the first time since federal support for sterilization programs began in the 1930s.

Dr. Carl Shultz, director of HEW's Office of Population Affairs, said that only state laws have applied in the past, although federal rules require that sterilization must be voluntary and without coercion in most circumstances.

The proposed regulations call for establishment of local committees to review and approve any sterilization of a minor or person believed to be incapable of giving informed consent, even if the girl's parents or guardians give their permission.

They also would require informed consent of each patient before sterilization, and prohibit any clinic receiving federal funds from performing non consent sterilization on the pretext that nonfederal funds were involved.

In that regard, the regulations would be stiffer than the interim guidelines announced last July and published in August, Shultz said.

An estimated 100,000 persons a year have been sterilized in programs involving federal funds, he said. Most of them have been poor, including many on welfare, Shultz said.

The proposals would apply to all HEW programs under the Public Health Service and the Social and Rehabilitation Service. Similar rules for the Aid to Families with Dependent Children program cannot be put into effect before Nov. 1 because of a dispute with Congress over social services regulations, HEW said.

Tapes compromise plan fails

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U. S. Court of Appeals, having failed to obtain a compromise settlement of the White House tapes controversy, returns to the constitutional questions in the dispute.

Special Watergate prosecutor Archibald Cox and the White House notified the court Thursday that their "sincere efforts" to reach an out-of-court settlement "were not fruitful."

The court had asked a week earlier that the attempt be made.

If the search for a compromise failed, the court had said, "This court will discharge its duty of determining the controversy with the knowledge that it has not hesitated to explore the possibility of avoiding constitutional adjudication."

An appeals court decision is expected by Oct. 1, when the Supreme Court returns from its summer recess.

Whatever ruling comes from the appeals court is expected to be appealed to the Supreme Court.

In nearly identical letters, Cox and Charles Alan Wright, White House consultant for the tapes case, told the appeals court that they had failed to reach a compromise in three meetings this week.

The court has before it appeals by both the President and Cox from U.S. District Court Judge John J. Sirica's order that he be given the tapes to determine whether the President's claim that they must be kept secret is valid.

Resistance to Chilean junta bared

MEXICO CITY (AP) — President Salvador Allende's widow says that underground resistance to the Chilean junta is mobilizing but "the resistance is going to be very hard."

Hortensia Bussi de Allende, who arrived in Mexico City Sunday, said that her husband's political and labor allies as well as some opposition Christian Democrats of "good faith" chose to remain in Chile rather than form a government in exile.

"Some were dead, some were arrested or went underground to organize the resistance movement," she said in an interview.

"I think our faith in peaceful revolution has been dealt a hard blow," said the woman whose husband tried to swing Chile to socialism after his election as a minority president.

She added, "We can start with peaceful elections, but there will have to be an armed, well organized people's army."

Mrs. Allende denied reports from Santiago this week that her husband planned a coup of his own to establish a dictatorship.

"Salvador always said, 'My government is one of transition to Socialism.' He never thought of a Communist dictatorship," she said.

Asked about U.S. military involvement in the coup, Mrs. Allende replied, "I am sure of one thing — of the great influence of the United States on our armed forces.... Our armed forces were penetrated very much by the United States."

She added that the strikes that preceded the coup had U.S. financial support, "otherwise how could they resist so long without work?" Money to pay the striking truck owners "had to come from the United States," she asserted.

A State Department spokesman in Washington said allegations that the truckers' strike had U.S. financing or any other kind of U.S. support were "absurd."

Gilligan meets with backers of Metzenbaum

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Gov. John J. Gilligan met Thursday with a group of suburban mayors supporting Howard Metzenbaum for U.S. senator. Gilligan is reported to favor Metzenbaum but wouldn't say whether he will come out publicly for the Cleveland businessman-attorney. There were 23 mayors in the group supporting Metzenbaum.

One member of the group, Parma Mayor John Petruska, said the meeting originally was intended to show support for Metzenbaum. But Petruska says the purpose changed after former astronaut John Glenn accused Gilligan Tuesday of favoring Metzenbaum and trying to put Glenn into the lieutenant governor race.

Petruska said the meeting was changed "to one of thanking Gilligan for his cooperation."

Enlisted aides cut

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has voted to sharply limit one privilege of military rank: the enlisted aide.

By a 73-9 vote Thursday, the Senate agreed to allow the aides — or "indentured servants" as Sen. William Proxmire calls them — only for the three highest ranks in each service.

The action came as the Senate opened debate on a $21.4 billion weapons bill.

Cox contends that the tapes of nine presidential conversations are vital evidence for the grand jury.

In other Watergate developments: —Cox asked Sirica to require that five Watergate conspirators who want to change their guilty pleas support in detail their claims that they were misled by high government officials. The pleas had been filed last January by E. Howard Hunt Jr., Virgilio R. Gonzalez, Eugenio R. Martinez, Frank Sturgis and Bernard L. Barker.

Would affect heating oil, propane gas

Fuel allocation plan awaits Nixon's OK

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House appears almost certain to impose mandatory controls on wholesale distribution of home-heating oil, propane and perhaps diesel fuel, informed sources indicate.

A decision has been made, subject only to presidential approval, to impose mandatory allocation of propane and to ban switching from coal and other high-sulfur fuels to scarcer low-sulfur petroleum, a source said.

Presidential proclamations on those two decisions are expected within a few days, a source said.

John A. Love, director of the White House Energy Policy Office, the public and other sources in private have indicated strongly that at least home-heating oil and probably diesel fuel would be brought under mandatory allocation. The remaining question seemed to be whether all petroleum fuels including gasoline must be controlled.

"Mandatory allocation" would apply only at the wholesale level and avoid direct rationing of fuel among consumers.

Last Aug. 9, Love proposed "for comment only" a mandatory allocation plan which would distribute fuels in proportion to past distribution, after setting aside 10 per cent for assignment by state governments to priority users.

For the guidance of states, that plan suggested that priority users might include sectors of the food and energy industries, health and sanitation services, police and emergency services, freight and public passenger transport, public utilities and telecommunications.

Meantime, Cost of Living Council Director John Dunlop said Thursday gasoline retailers will be allowed to raise prices by one or two cents a gallon soon, probably by Oct. 2.

Dunlop's announcement to the Joint Economic Committee of Congress came after an intense effort by gas station owners to have the ceiling prices in effect since Sept. 7 raised. Some dealers had shut down in protest and others had said they were planning to do so.

Senate OKs Kissinger

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate today approved Henry A. Kissinger as secretary of state to succeed William P. Rogers.

Kissinger will retain his White House position as the President's assistant for national security affairs.

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee, in approving the nomination 16 to 1 Tuesday, said its doubts whether one man could do two jobs were resolved in favor of giving the new arrangement "a fair try."

"If this system does not work, it must be reexamined," the committee said in its report to the Senate.

The committee found Kissinger, German-born former Harvard professor, "eminently qualified" for the position both by education and experience.

Sen. George McGovern, D-S.D., who cast the only committee vote against Kissinger, said he did so in symbolic protest against "the needless prolongation of the Indochina war."

NO VACANCY — "What a dog," was the way Mr. and Mrs. Michael Raney of Spokane Wash., described the puppy birth effort of their St. Bernard. In 24 hours the dog gave birth to 14 puppies. Because the dog can only feed 8 puppies at a time, the Raneys bottle feed some of them.

Auto pact marks continued year of peace in big labor

WASHINGTON (AP) — A quick end to the Chrysler Corp. strike would restore this year's remarkable labor peace, with its pattern of relatively modest wage settlements despite spiraling prices.

Limited by government wage guidelines, the unions have focused on improving working conditions, early retirement and workers' rights.

The Chrysler pact, up for ratification

Consumer prices up

WASHINGTON (AP) — Consumer prices jumped 1.8 per cent in August, the sharpest rate of increase in 26 years, the government reported today. The biggest one-month jump in food prices since 1917 was to blame.

The rise in over-all consumer prices was 1.8 per cent unadjusted and 1.9 per cent on a seasonally adjusted basis, both the highest since September 1947.

The Labor Department said surging prices for meats, poultry and eggs accounted for about 80 per cent of the steep rise in the Consumer Price Index last month.

Consumer food prices leaped a record 6 per cent in August, more than in any month since the 9.6 per cent increase in April 1917.

Government economists had predicted the disastrous price report for August following the record-breaking boost in whole-sale prices recorded earlier following the removal of price restraints.

A price freeze that began June 13 ended for food on July 18 and for almost everything else on Aug. 12.

conspirator, G. Gordon Liddy, pleaded innocent in Los Angeles to state charges of burglary and conspiracy in connection with the 1971 break-in at the office of Daniel Ellsberg's psychiatrist.

—Henry Rothblatt, fired as defense attorney for four of the Watergate defendants because he refused to let them plead guilty, sued President Nixon and others Thursday for $10 million "for malicious interference with an attorney-client contract." Rothblatt had represented Martinez, Gonzalez, Sturgis and Barker.

London citizens take bombings in stride

spate of bombings, people whose job it is to sort the mail and look after packages have become understandably cautious. And jumpy, which the police regard as a good sign that their campaign to alert the public is taking hold. There have been more than 50 bombing incidents, many of them involving letter bombs.

By the second mail delivery on Thursday afternoon, more than 150 office workers had dialed 999 to advise Scotland Yard about a suspicious looking envelope, usually about the size of a paperback book but sometimes more on the order of a box of chocolates, with a Paris or Dublin postmark.

No new bombs were found. But all day long the white police Land Rovers, each manned by an army bomb disposal expert and a detective inpector, went blaring across the city almost unnoticed in the bright September sunshine.

London is learning to live with the new menace by mail, facing the situation with customary British calm and unflappability. The outrage is there all right, like violence after a Saturday soccer match or a particularly disastrous train wreck. But nothing to lose one's cool over, old chap.

Shoppers in droves still inch their way along Oxford Street, even if they tend to tarry less over the bargain tables and avoid the upstairs tea rooms in the big stores for fear of being trapped in an elevator. But it isn't like Belfast, where you enter a shop through an army checkpoint behind sandbags and barbed wire and submit to a search.

The Bank of England and the Stock

Exchange had bomb blasts a while back. But the only panic observable among the men with the bowler hats hurrying through the narrow lanes of the financial district is over the state of the pound and the dollar.

"Revaluation of the Dutch guilder was the biggest shock we've had around here," grumbled a man disappearing through the big front door in the windowless facade of the Old Lady of Threadneedle Street.

Covent Garden opened its fall opera season this week requiring all patrons to deposit their briefcases and packages in the cloakroom. Sgt. Martin, the massive ex-guardsmen who defends the portals, had to listen to many a jibe against the "idiocy of anyone thinking an IRA man would sit through four hours of 'Tannhauser' with a bomb in his lap."

Egypt to break Mideast truce?

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Egypt has secretly warned Palestinian guerrillas that it plans to break the three-year Middle East cease-fire soon, the Lebanese newspaper An Nahar reported today.

The warning was discussed in a nine-hour emergency session of the executive committee of the Palestine Liberation Organization under top guerrilla leader Yasir Arafat in Beirut Thursday, An Nahar said.

A guerrilla spokesman said a statement about the executive committee's meeting was to be issued within 24 hours. He declined to comment on the reported Egyptian warning.

Toledo men slain, then bodies burned

MONROE, Mich. (AP) — Police today probed the slaying of two Ohio men whose charred bodies were found in rural Monroe County within the past 24 hours.

The victims were identified as Carlus Maltbia, 32, and Rudford James, 23, both of Toledo.

Singer Jim Croce killed

NATCHITOCHES, La. (AP) — Recording star Jim Croce, whose latest hit was top seller "Big Bad Leroy Brown," was killed along with five others in a plane crash near the Natchitoches municipal airport.

The 30-year-old rock singer had just completed a performance before 2,000 students at Northwestern State University.

NASA studies women's role in future space missions

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Aeronautics and Space Administration has started studies aimed at eventually putting women into space.

Announcement of the experiments, already underway in California, comes only weeks after a women's magazine, Ms., accused the space agency of sex discrimination in its selection of astronauts.

There never has been a female U.S. astronaut although the Soviet Union's Valentina Tereshkova spent 70 hours and 50 minutes in space in 1963.

The California tests are the first ever conducted by NASA on the suitability of females in space. However, NASA officials have been saying for three years they hoped to put a woman aboard the space shuttle flights scheduled to start in 1978.

The five-week NASA studies, involving 12 Air Force flight nurses, started last Monday at the Ames Research Center in Mountain View, Calif.

Scientists hope to determine how well women withstand the low gravitational

Bangladesh faces loss of U.N. bid

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Prime Minister Zulfikar Ali Bhutto of Pakistan has barred Bangladesh from membership in the United Nations until all Pakistani prisoners of war are returned home.

Bhutto told the General Assembly Thursday afternoon his government would withdraw its opposition to the admission of Pakistan's former eastern half into the world organization "as soon as all our prisoners of war ... have been repatriated."

He specified that those returned must include the 195 POWs that Bangladesh wants to put on trial for war crimes during the December 1971 India-Pakistan war that gave Bangladesh its independence.

China, Pakistan's chief Asian ally, vetoed Bangladesh's application for U.N. membership last year and presumably will continue to block it as long as Pakistan wants that done.

Demo leaders study reforms

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic party leaders seek to head off a divisive fight today as the party's reform commission meets to consider new guidelines for picking 1976 national convention delegates.

National Chairman Robert S. Strauss set the tone Thursday when he warned the warring factions to compromise.

Strauss said the American public is "sick and tired of those on either side of the political spectrum who create ill will where there is none, exaggerate points of issue and controversy where there should be compromise, take cheap shots at the leaders and standard bearers of our party ... and use reform as a tool to destroy individuals, destroy institutions and advance private goals and personal ambitions."

Strauss recommended the scrapping of the controversial "quota" system, more assurance that elected officials are included in party affairs and limits on the application of proportional representation.

All three actions already were expected, but Strauss' added voice appeared to be a notice to diehards on both sides of the ideological struggle that he expects them to join the compromise.

Roosevelt to testify

WASHINGTON (AP) — Elliott Roosevelt, son of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, has accepted a Senate panel's invitation to appear to answer charges he helped contract for the assassination of the prime minister of the Bahamas.

That charge was levelled earlier this week by convicted stock swindler Louis PM Mastriana, who told the Senate subcommittee on investigations Roosevelt was one of two men who offered him $100,000 to assassinate Lyndon O. Pindling.

Mastriana said he turned down the offer.

Roosevelt has flatly denied the allegation and has described Mastriana as "absolutely crazy."

Sen. Henry Jackson, D-Wash., chairman of the subcommittee, said Roosevelt, former mayor of Miami Beach who now lives in Portugal, may appear as early as next week.

5 girls are selected for Ohio State Band

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Karen Griffith of Pomeroy and four other young women have been selected as the first female members of the Ohio State University marching band.

Miss Griffith was named a regular band member, and the others were chosen as alternates.

The alternates are Sue Johnson of Pickerington, Lisa Bauman of Worthington, Becky Parker of Dennison and Rachel Fauser of Lakewood.

Natchitoches Parish Sheriff Sam James said Robert N. Elliott of Dallas was the pilot of the twin-engine chartered plane. The others were connected with the tour group.

The crash occurred about 10:45 p.m. Thursday, as the plane left the south runway. It crashed about 200 yards from the end of the runway after hitting a tree.

forces of reentry and the tendency of the blood to pool in the legs. They also will study specific changes in the body induced by weightlessness. The studies will concentrate on biorhythms, body biochemistry, cardiovascular responses and changes in the endocrine gland, NASA says.

Data gained from the experiments will be compared with data from experiments on men.

NASA said eight of the 12 volunteers will be kept in bed for two weeks while four will be allowed to walk.

At the end of the two weeks, the eight women will be subjected to gravitational forces expected when the Space Shuttle enters the atmosphere at the end of the mission.

Data from the eight test subjects will be compared to data from the four women who were allowed to walk.

Ms. said in a recent issue that NASA had rejected several qualified women as potential astronauts, including famed Oklahoma aviator Jerrie Cobb, who had more flight time than many of the men eventually selected for moon missions.

Singh, after hearing Bhutto's speech, termed it "a crude attempt to nibble at the agreement." India and Pakistan signed Aug. 28 for the exchange of more than 300,000 people displaced by the war. But Singh expressed confidence that Pakistan would abide by the agreement "because it is not in Pakistan's interest ... to adopt any other course."

The agreement provided for the return of all the 90,000 Pakistan POWs from India except the 195. It specified that they would remain in Indian custody until their disposition was decided at a meeting of Bangladesh, India and Pakistan.

Bhutto came to U.N. headquarters after a visit to President Nixon in Washington. He told the assembly Pakistan has "never been embarrassed" by its 20-year-old alliance with the United States. But he said Pakistan maintains friendly relations with China and the Soviet Union as well.

Wheat crisis discounted

The commission, headed by former Baltimore Councilwoman Barbara Mikulski, scheduled two days of discussions beginning today on rule-change proposals covered in six regional hearings over the summer.

Although no actual rulemaking was expected this weekend, Ms. Mikulski, as she prefers to be called, hoped to create a drafting committee to prepare proposals to be acted on at a commission meeting in October.

Wheat crisis discounted

ROME (AP) — The major wheat exporters say they anticipate no immediate wheat crisis, but the U.N. Food and Agriculture Organization says the poor nations can't afford the current high prices.

"Although supplies of wheat are tight, there is certainly no crisis situation," declared Richard E. Bell, a deputy assistant U.S. secretary of agriculture.

Officials of the U.N. Food and Agriculture Organization called agricultural experts from the United States, Canada, Argentina, Australia and the nine Common Market countries together Thursday because world wheat stocks are at their lowest level in 20 years.

After the conference, FAO said even if there is enough wheat to go around, developing countries are being forced to cut their imports because of "the high prices, shortage of credit and the expected shortfall of food aid levels."

House leaders reject Connally

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Democratic leaders have flatly rejected any possibility of confirming John B. Connally as a replacement for Vice President Spiro T. Agnew should Agnew resign, authoritative sources said today.

A contingent of Democratic House members met in the office of Speaker Carl Albert of Oklahoma on Thursday to discuss privately what action they might take should Agnew step down as a result of a graft investigation in Maryland which involves him.

Among the names which House sources said the Democrats found acceptable as vice presidential replacements were Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., former Secretary of State William P. Rogers and Rep. Gerald R. Ford, R-Mich., the House minority leader.

Kaylor said he was stepping down for personal and health reasons.

Kompong Cham shelled by Reds

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — The Cambodian military command said Khmer Rouge gunners shelled three areas inside Kompong Cham today after a lull of several days.

The insurgents were reported moving more troops into the area 47 miles northeast of Phnom Penh.

A spokesman said government forces continued to expand their area of control around the city which a week ago was the scene of some of the hardest fighting of the Cambodian war. The troops reoccupied a military engineers' camp half a mile north of the city's university campus. It was abandoned three weeks ago under strong pressure from the insurgents.

Hearing scheduled on rights complaints

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Civil Rights Commission is scheduled Tuesday to hear 19 complaints, including one from a Youngstown woman who said she was forced to quit her job because of her religious beliefs.

Vicki Cosma said her refusal to work Sundays resulted in harassment and difficulties which forced her to quit K-Mart Department Store in Youngstown.

The commission was to begin its session at 9 a.m. in the Neil House Hotel.

Asbestos in water said hazard

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — A physician-scientist has testified that the presence of asbestos in the drinking water of Duluth and other Lake Superior communities is responsible for "a distinct public health hazard."

Dr. Irving Selikoff predicted "disastrous consequences" Thursday for residents of communities which take their drinking water from the largest of the Great Lakes.

Selikoff, professor of medicine at the Mount Sinai School of Medicine in New York, is the U.S. Government's chief scientific witness. The government's suit is aimed at ending the Reserve Mining Company's discharge of taconite tailings into Lake Superior. He was scheduled to be cross examined today by Reserve attorneys.

The government suit contends Reserve's discharge from its Silver Bay, Minn., plant contains large amounts of asbestos.

Selikoff concluded three days of testimony on the cancer-producing quality of asbestos fibers.

Reserve attorney Edward Friede objected to Selikoff's testimony, complaining the witness had been allowed to comment freely on anything from asbestos to the state of the nation.

However, U.S. District Judge Miles Lord, who is hearing the complex case without a jury, overruled the objections. He said Friede had no way of knowing how much of Selikoff's testimony he would consider as evidence.

Hank Aaron wins 'title'

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Comedian Jack Benny says he's relinquishing his title as the most famous "39-year-old" personality.

"I'm abdicating and giving the title to Hank Aaron," Benny said Thursday in an interview with Wayne Minshew, baseball writer for the Atlanta Constitution.

"He's No. 1 right now," Benny said. Benny, actually in his 70s, says he's been following closely Aaron's pursuit of Babe Ruth's all-time home run record of 714.

The comedian said: "I'm pulling for him. If I weren't so busy, I'd fly to where he is to watch him do it. That's something I'd really like to see."

Columbus shop illness spreads

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A worker in the shipping department at the illness-plagued Columbus Coated Fabrics plant was tested positive for a mysterious nerve ailment, a union leader said today.

The worker, Allen Pack, is the first employee in that department to be affected by the malady which has struck 54 other workers, said Corwin Smith, president of Local 487 of the Textile Workers of America.

Smith said previously only workers in the print shop and color-mixing department were affected with what doctors describe as "peripheral neuropathy" which weakens arms and legs.

Story clarified on milk problems

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Associated Press erroneously reported on Sept. 17 that a Consumers Union report on alleged lead contamination involved condensed milk. The Consumers Union report dealt with evaporated milk.

Although both products are marketed in cans, the two products are not the same.

The Food and Drug Administration challenged the Consumers Union tests and concluded: "The FDA does not consider any brand of evaporated milk now on the market to be in violation of FDA rules for safety or in any way unfit for consumer use."

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Stephen Wilson, 18, of Columbus was killed on the city's north side early today when his car skidded, flipped over several times and came to rest against a utility pole.

Rain was in Ohio's weather picture today, expected to come ahead of a low pressure system, first into western areas of the state by afternoon and spreading over the state Friday night.

A nearly stationary front extended Friday morning from Virginia and Tennessee to a low center in eastern Colorado. The warm front will push northeastward across Ohio Saturday with the low moving across the northern Great Lakes, bringing showers or thunderstorms to the southern and central counties, and a warming trend. Afternoon temperatures are expected to climb into the 70s on Saturday with a chance of the low 80s in the south.

There was a wide range of temperatures over Ohio Friday morning. Skies were clear in the northern parts of the state and the mercury sank into the 30s in some sections.

In contrast farther south a blanket of clouds held temperatures up and along the Ohio River readings were around the 60-degree mark.

Temperatures Friday morning ranged from 33 at Youngstown to 60 at Cincinnati. The reading at Youngstown equaled the record for the date set in 1956.

A cooling trend will be moving into Ohio Sunday with a chance of showers. Monday and Tuesday will be fair and cool. Highs Sunday will be in the 70s, cooling to the 60s by Tuesday. Lows Sunday morning will be in the 60s, falling to the 40s by Tuesday.

Cool air hits Lakes states

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Cool, crisp air fanned across the northern Great Lakes region into New York and New England today dropping temperatures to near freezing.

Skies were clear over most of the nation except for widely scattered showers and thunderstorms.

Thunderstorms rumbled across areas from the Pacific Northwest coast to the northern Rockies. A few light showers sprinkled parts of the northern Mississippi Valley and lower Ohio Valley and parts of Florida.

Rainfall generally was less than one-half inch. Over an inch fell in many places along the northern Pacific coast Thursday. And San Francisco had its first significant rain in five months Thursday as 2.5 inches were measured.

Fog was common along the California coast and over Missouri, Kansas and parts of Arkansas and Nebraska.

Temperatures before dawn ranged from 30° at Marquette, Mich., to 85° at Needles, Calif.

Ohio high court to review Kent dispute

Friday, September 21, 1973 Washington C.H. (O.) Record-Herald - Page 3

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) Ohio's Supreme Court has agreed to decide whether trustees of Kent State University acted legally in discontinuing its high school program.

The high court accepted Thursday a case in which counsel for a former student, Leslie Sternberg, alleged that the trustees broke a contract with students when it halted high school programs in June 1972.

Lower courts ruled, however, that in the absence of a written contract the student had no legal recourse.

The Sternberg suit asks for injunctive and declaratory relief "to do all things necessary to insure the plaintiff and class receive from the defendants what has been promised and represented to them."

In other action, the court let stand a lower court decision that freed a Cleveland man of a first degree murder charge on a ruling that his Fifth Amendment rights were violated.

The state appealed to the Supreme Court after the Cuyahoga County Court of Appeals reversed the conviction of Clifford Duncan. He had been convicted in the Jan. 15, 1970, fatal shooting of Jerry Thomas, 20, his rival for the affections of a Cleveland woman.

The appellate court ruled that Duncan did not "knowingly" waive his right to refuse to make a statement when police questioned him.

In other action, the Supreme Court refused to disturb an appellate court decision that relieved Richard Knipp of Akron of a $7,000 trial court award resulting from a traffic accident.

Knipp, who admitted liability but asked for a jury to fix damages, was sued by Rebecca Johnson of Akron. She was injured when Knipp's car crashed into her stopped vehicle on East Ave. in Akron Oct. 28, 1968.

Counsel for Knipp appealed after Knipp was cross examined at the trial as to whether he was intoxicated at the time of the accident.

The appeals court said in reversing the trial court that he could have been legally cross examined only after giving testimony that conflicted with testimony given by the plaintiff.

In another action, the Supreme Court accepted for review the reversal of a $55,000 damage award won by Merle Snow of Mount Vernon.

Snow was injured when his car struck and killed a pony on a Knox County road south of Mount Vernon April 9, 1969. The accident happened in 3 a.m. darkness.

Producers Livestock Association, owner of the animal, was sued after testimony indicated it strayed from the premises through a gate which had been left open.

In reversing the lower court award, the appeals court cited "prejudicial errors."

In another case upholding the shoplifting conviction of Barbara

Lunch of Massillon, the court ruled, in effect, that trial courts have a right to impose heavier sentences on persons found guilty than on those who plead guilty.

Two others arrested with the Lynch woman pleaded guilty and received a lighter sentence. The three were arrested in the Higbe Store in the Belden Village Shopping Center in Stark County.

2 nabbed, 1 slain in Butler manhunt

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP) — Butler County authorities today continued to question two men captured in a manhunt following a savings association robbery Thursday afternoon. A third man was shot to death during the chase.

Authorities said early today that they still did not know the names of those arrested or of the man shot to death by sheriff's deputies.

Neither of the men has been charged, deputies said.

The capture climaxed a running gun battle across Butler County that ended in a wooded area near Middletown.

The chase began shortly after the Home Federal Savings and Loan Association branch at Pishgah was robbed. Patrolman Leroy Nagle, at a police station across the street, spotted the men fleeing and pursued them.

The chase was joined by the Ohio Highway Patrol as the suspects' car, a red and white Cadillac, left town and turned onto Interstate 75. Both the police and patrol cruisers were hit by bullets, but the officers were not injured.

Police said they fired eight times at the fleeing car.

The car left I-75 at a Middletown exit and turned into a motel parking lot. Nagle said he blocked the car's path and it swerved over an embankment and into a stream.

The car's occupants fled on foot. Authorities said the man killed was shot in a nearby woods. Police said the two others were flushed from a thicket several hours later.

Police continued to search for a fourth man until after dark. They later said they no longer believed there was a fourth man.

A housekeeper at a motel near where the men were captured said she turned over several bundles of cash and a handgun found outside a motel laundry room.

She estimated there was $6,000 to $8,000 in the bundles.

"I heard an odd noise out there, like brakes squealing," she said.

She said she saw a Cadillac stop and "these two men came rolling out of the car."

The money and gun also fell out, and a third man continued to drive over the embankment, she said.

About 100 police, including the Ohio

Highway Patrol, the FBI and local officers surrounded the area. The patrol, using an airplane and a helicopter, spotted the man who was killed.

"He was dug in so deep we could barely see him," said Franklin Police Sgt. Charles Harbach.

"He was lying face down— not moving. When we turned him over he was bleeding and the gun was under him."

The man died later at Middletown Hospital.

The other two were captured in police sweeps.

FIRST DAY OF AUTUMN

Nature starts to "turn in" for the long, cold winter ahead. Man gathers the harvest of his summer's labor. The most classic example of autumn is the squirrel storing acorns for the barren winter ahead. By instinct this small animal knows to put some away for a time of need. Emergencies arise in our lives, and we need to set some aside to meet those needs, perhaps at a time (like winter) when things won't be so bountiful. Plan now to save, each payday, a small amount of your earnings. Then when "winter" comes you'll be ready for it. And the best place to save is First Federal, where your "acorns" become "mighty oaks."

More UFOs in the South

It is somehow heartening to learn of a new rash of UFO sightings, this time in Alabama. This episode, coupled with recent doings in Georgia, suggests that it's not yet time to close the books on unidentified flying objects even though the Air Force and most of the scientific community seem of such a mind.

The price of liberty in Russia

It seemed too good to be true. For several years strenuous efforts have been made to regularize the funding of Radio Free Europe and Radio Liberty, the two stations — formerly financed by the CIA — that broadcast into Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union.

Last February a presidential commission, chaired by Dr. Milton Eisenhower (of which I was a member) recommended that the stations be continued and that they be funded by Congress through a Board for International Broadcasting.

The bureaucracy moved slowly, but finally a bill was submitted to Congress incorporating these proposals and authorizing $50 million for the stations.

IN THE Senate Foreign Relations Committee, Sen. Fulbright tried to block the measure, but — to make a long story short — when the vote was taken he was overwhelmed. It then was reported to the whole Senate for action on Sept. 6.

Sen. Fulbright, with Sen. Stuart Symington as his end man, again put on a desultory rear-guard action, but Sen. Charles Percy held the line with great effectiveness. When the final vote was taken, the bill passed intact, 76 to 10. (The only oddity was that Sen. George McGovern managed to vote against a bill which he had co-sponsored.)

That made it sound easy, but note that this was only an "authorization." It was not an "appropriation," which has to follow a different committee track in both houses. And the unfortunate thing about the vote was that Sens. John McClellan and John Pastore joined Fulbright in opposition.

McClellan is chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee; Pastore, chairman of the Sub-Committee of Appropriations, which deals with this legislation.

McClellan has not explained his opposition, but Pastore is in a fury over the Administration's closing of defense installations in Rhode Island, and its trade policies. Long a good soldier in the internationalist ranks, Pastore thinks that we have to take another look before we shoot our money into overseas operations.

To summarize, the 76-10 was a phantom victory. The Senate Appropriations Committee met roughly a week later and butchered the appropriation for Radio Free Europe and Radio Liberty. The House of Representatives had earlier appropriated $45 million. Now the Senate Committee cut this back to $40 million. By the time this column appears, the whole Senate may well have accepted this level.

There was one big disappointment in Georgia. After repeated sightings of strange objects in the sky, a wondrous green, glowing cylinder found in a field turned out to be nothing more exotic than an automobile trouble flare.

But Alabama, now! There sightings — one a fast-moving object which appeared red and white, then green and then white — were made in various places.

Not by mere befuddled citizenry, either; these sightings were reported by police. Things are looking up for UFO fanciers.

shepherds, etc. that appear in the media.

Indeed, on Sept. 4, Izvestia blew its cork on the subject, attacking the stations for disseminating the writings of "moral freaks" and congratulating Sen. Fulbright for his efforts to relax tensions.

I am all for relaxing tensions, but not at the expense of "moral freaks" like Sakharov and Solzhenitsyn. The conscience of America demands that Radio Liberty and Radio Free Europe continue their broadcasts to the "muffled zones."

We have no intention of encouraging kamikaze attacks against the Communist regimes, but the least we can do is let these oppressed peoples know that they have not been forgotten.

We can dream, can't we?

NEW YORK (AP) — Excerpts from letters we'd like to get but the postman rarely brings:

"We are lawyers representing the late Miss Hortense McWherry, whom you probably remember as the lovely redhaired girl who jilted you in high school. Later she came to regret bitterly the shabby way she had treated you, and often said it was the biggest mistake of her lifetime, because she could never hope to attract another man as fine as you.

"In time she became a recluse and kept a candle lit under the high school yearbook picture of you she pasted on her bedroom wall. To shorten a long story, she died last week, still murmuring your name as tears rolled down her cheeks.

"Her will bequeaths you half the money in her father's residuary estate. Your share comes to $500,000. Would you like us to send it to you in bills of large or small denominations?"

Dear Jim,

My wife tells me that your wife told her that you were moping because you felt you had made a first-class fool of yourself at our cocktail party last Friday.

Nonsense, old man. You were the life of the party. It would have laid a great big ostrich egg except for the fun you provided. All the guests were crazy about you.

Don't worry about the floor lamp. It has been broken at least five times before, and anyway Marge and I only paid $6.75 for it when we bought it at a rummage sale back in 1949.

Your Horoscope

BY FRANCES DRAKE

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 22, 1973

ARIES

(March 21 to April 20)

There may be fewer gains now but, conversely, also fewer pitfalls: Be on the lookout for both, however. A good day for meetings, agreements involving future projects.

TAURUS

(April 21 to May 21)

If you have a tight schedule, a deadline to meet, it will be especially important to keep calm. And DO appraise situations carefully before acting. Business matters need extra vigilance.

GEMINI

(May 22 to June 21)

Avoid activities, ideas or people who are not worthwhile. Temptation sometimes comes in odd garb, so use a careful but not entirely-suspicious yardstick.

CANCER

(June 22 to July 23)

You can choose activities from several areas now, but stay within reasonable boundaries. Stellar influences, fairly auspicious, stimulate your creative leanings.

LEO

(July 24 to Aug. 23)

You should do especially well now in projects which require careful organization, clever management. Don't let opposition dissuade you.

VIRGO

(Aug. 24 to Sept. 23)

If careful to guard against impulsive acts and words, the day should be generally smooth. Gains indicated from past efforts.

LIBRA

(Sept. 24 to Oct. 23)

Think "big" and aim for top achievement. This is no day for pessimism. Concentrate on essentials, and don't overlook even the smallest of opportunities.

SCORPIO

(Oct. 24 to Nov. 22)

Opposition from unexpected sources should not disrupt routine or plans previously made. Accept all challenges with your innate sturdiness and ability.

SAGITTARIUS

(Nov. 23 to Dec. 21)

Be careful not to provoke others in business or social gatherings. You may detect flaws in the reasoning of some, but speak sparingly — and only where it will HELP.

Incidentally, we want you and your wife back at a party we're having a week from next Friday. Bring your bongo drums again, I'll get out my mandolin, and we'll show the gang some real foot-stomping music.

"Because of the mild flu epidemic, our executive committee has decided to cancel the monthly meeting of the P-T A for this Thursday night.

"This will come as a double disappointment, because we won't be able to hear until a later date the scheduled address by Dr. Shotwell for the evening on "Obsessive Guilt in Preadolescent Gifted Siblings."

"We regret having to make this decision, but, considering the situation realistically, we feel it is imperative to avoid any risks of spreading the ..."

"Dear Hubby,

"I've had a pleasant two-week stay with Mother, and my only regret is that she has decided not to come home with me and spend a month with us. My sister Grace gave birth to a baby boy Tuesday, and Mother feels it is her duty to go to her and help take care of her new little grandson. I think I'll go along with her and spend a week with them, too.

"In case you're short of money, look in our old family Bible under Deuteronomy. I hid it there for emergencies. Be sure the canary gets plenty of water, and don't soak his seeds in gin before feeding him. That doesn't make him sing better. It just makes him sullen. Love and kisses, Fanny"

Dear Abby:

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

Follow up on 'gift from God' to teach deaf

DEAR ABBY: A college girl wrote that she felt she had a "gift from God" to teach deaf people to talk, but she was "torn" because her parents feared if she pursued that profession she might end up marrying a deaf person.

May I comment? Our son, who is one of the finest speech therapists in the country, married a perfectly normal girl, but had he married one with a speech defect, we would have loved her no less.

When I saw our son take a crippled, retarded child on his lap, and help that boy utter his first audible word, I cannot explain the feeling that came over me. That boy looked up into our son's eyes as if to say, "Thank you," and my son looked down into the eyes of that child as if to say, "You are going to learn to talk!" (And subsequently the child did.)

Let me tell you, all the money in the world couldn't buy the thrill I experienced at that moment.

Thank you, Abby, for telling that girl that if she feels she has a "gift from God" to teach the deaf, to pursue that calling. She will never regret it.

PROUD FATHER

DEAR FATHER: Working with the handicapped is one of the most rewarding of all careers. It takes a special kind of human being to do it, and I sincerely believe that those who do are indeed "gifted" by God, and chosen for the privilege.

DEAR ABBY: I noticed this real pretty girl who just started to work where I work. She seemed real friendly and always smiled and said hello when she saw me. (It's a big office, and we work in different departments.)

I asked her if she liked movies and she said yes, so I asked her when I could take her to a movie of her choice, then she said she didn't like them all that much, so I let the matter drop.

A few days later, I asked her if she would like to have dinner with me at a nice restaurant, and she said she was on a diet to lose weight so there wouldn't be much point in that.

I asked her if she liked music, thinking I could take her to some kind of concert and she said music gave her a headache.

Abby, I am 27, and she's about 22, so it can't be that I'm too young for her. Please tell me how I can get a date with this girl. I am told I am a nice young man, but I must be doing something wrong. I'm no run-around, but I've never had trouble getting dates before.

BATTLING ZERO

DEAR BATTING: Wake up and smell the coffee! The chemistry is wrong. She's not interested, so turn your attentions elsewhere-where they'll be welcome and appreciated.

DEAR ABBY: This may help the young couple who were "in trouble" and couldn't find a minister who would marry them because neither belonged to any church:

Every commissioned officer of the Salvation Army is an ordained Christian minister, authorized to perform marriage ceremonies which will be legal and binding in every state of the U.S. Because the girl was pregnant, she couldn't have been married in the Salvation Army's chapel, but she could have a proper legal wedding.

Please pass this information on, Abby. Many may not know. I am a soldier of the corps.

Today In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Friday, Sept. 21, the 264th day of 1973. There are 101 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1949, West Germany came into formal existence as the allied high command transferred to it the U.S., British and French zones of occupation.

On this date —

In 1776, the first naval battle of the American revolution was fought on Lake Champlain.

In 1792, the French assembly voted to abolish France's monarchy.

In 1893, the first successful gasoline automobile in the United States was driven by inventor Frank Duryea at Springfield, Mass.

In 1938, Czechoslovakia announced it had agreed to cede the Sudeten area of that country to Nazi Germany.

In 1939, Russia and Germany agreed on the demarcation of Poland.

In 1945, President Harry Truman officially approved "World War II" as the title of the war which had just ended.

Ten years ago ... The Soviet government criticized China for its rejection of the treaty curbing nuclear weapons tests.

Five years ago ... Twenty three persons were injured in a 35-vehicle chain collision in fog on the New Jersey turnpike.

One year ago ... For the first time since March of 1965, a week had passed without American combat deaths in the Indochina war.

Today's birthdays: Pianist Gyorgy Sandor is 61.

Thought for today: The only time a horse gets scared nowadays is when he meets another horse — the late humorist Will Rogers.

Wage and salary rates rose about 7 per cent in 1972, and food prices went up about 6 per cent.

Gilligan said the Department of Agriculture will transfer 40 acres to the Department of Commerce, which will operate the $3 million facility.

The complex will consist of a dormitory, classroom and medical facilities, and a training building designed to simulate hazardous situations faced by firemen.

The academy also will have a training tower, administration building and auditorium, aircraft rescue area, emergency vehicle driving course and other specialized training areas.

The state fire marshal's office will be located at the academy.

Groundbreaking for the facility is expected next year.

St. Benignus Church is setting for Uhl-Jenkins wedding rites

Miss Denise Uhl and Larry D. Jenkins exchanged marriage vows during Nuptial Mass Sept. 8 in St. Benignus Catholic Church in Greenfield. Rev. Fr. Harold J. Bernard performed the double ring ceremony at 10:30 a.m. for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Uhl Jr., Greenfield, and the son of Mrs. Robert E. Newell of Good Hope, and the late Alfred Jenkins. Eddie Dettwiller and David Zoldak were the acolytes.

Mrs. Ralph W. Phillips, organist, presented a half-hour of prelude music and accompanied the vocalist, Charles Wehner of Greenfield.

White Grecian urns arranged with disbuds in fall colors, amber and gold pompons and greenery, graced the main altar, sentineled by candles in gold holders. On the side altars were the same flowers in keeping with the color theme. Seven branch candelabra at each side of the altar held tall white tapers and were entwined with ivy and lily of the valley. White bows with a cascade of ivy and the same white blossoms marked the family pews.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a bridal gown of pure silk organza and Venise lace over taffeta, styled with V-neckline and sheer bishop sleeves enhanced with Venise lace. The flared skirt was full in the back, and had double rows of the same lace at the hemline. Her cathedral length mantilla styled veil of sheer illusion was edged with matching imported lace. Her only jewelry was a gold locket, a gift from the groom. She carried a Victorian bouquet of pale yellow sweetheart roses, white poms and babies' breath.

At the close of the ceremony, the bride and groom, placed a single yellow rose on the side altar dedicated to the Blessed Mary.

Miss Michele Uhl was maid of honor for her sister. Another sister, Annette Uhl, was junior bridesmaid, along with the Misses Elaine Hardy and Mary Jane Vergotz, bridesmaids. They wore identical floor length gowns with ruffled hemlines and ivory lace bodices. The green crepe and ivory lace were repeated in the Juliet sleeves and high necklines. Matching green tinted flat poms and ivy leaves at the back of their hair complimented their gowns. They carried arrangements of autumn toned disbuds, amber and gold daisy poms and greenery with matching variegated showers.

The bride's mother wore a floor length beige gown with matching lace bodice and long lace sleeves. She wore a corsage of green carnations. The groom's mother wore an aqua A-line gown with long sleeves of silk organza and satin trim. She wore a corsage of pale yellow sweetheart rosebuds.

Mrs. Zelda Armstrong of Streator, Ill., maternal grandmother of the groom, wore an A-line styled dress of

The same autumn decor was carried out for the reception at the Terrace Lounge which followed. White cloths adorned the tables and appointed in crystal and silver. The tiered pedestaled wedding cake was decorated with florets and topped with a straw floral arrangement. Punch and party foods were served. For the ensuing luncheon a flower arrangement adorned the bride's table, in the dining room. Mrs. Barbara Linton, sister of the groom, presided at the guest book. Senior hostesses were Mrs. Rodney Rich and Mrs. Donald Hindes. Misses Mary Ann Fortkamp, Sarah Leibold, Beverly Boyd and Mrs. Steve Parker presided at the serving table.

Mr. and Mrs. Newell, the groom's parents, entertained the bridal party and out-of-town guests at the rehearsal dinner the evening preceding the wedding at Wardell's Party Home.

When the couple left for the wedding trip to Canada, Niagara Falls and

Rochester, N.Y., the bride was wearing a two piece outfit of floral print on green crepe with contrasting accessories.

Perrills visit Rev. and Mrs. Simmons

Dr. Charles V. Perrill and his wife Dr. Wilma Conger Perrill were recent visitors of the Rev. and Mrs. H.A. Simmons, 219 Gardner Court. Dr. Perrill, Professor of Surgery at the Ohio Medical College in Toledo, had been in Dayton where he attended the Ohio Chapter of the American College of Surgeons. For 21 years Dr. Perrill and Mrs. Perrill were missionary doctors at Clara Swain Hospital in Bareilly, India.

Dr. Wilma Perrill handled a great volume of the work by taking over the specialties of obstetrics, gynecology and pediatrics. Her husband acted as surgeon, internist, administrator, architect, superintendent of construction and fund raiser.

Upon leaving India, the hospital had expanded into a modern 300-bed hospital. At the end of the 21 years, they agreed to go to The Creighton Freeman Hospital in the holy city of Vrindaban, North India. Construction of a new hospital was well under way by the time they had to leave in 1971. They now reside in Lakeside.

The Perrills are both graduates of the Northwestern University Medical School in Chicago, Ill., and are Methodists.

TV Viewing

By JAY SHARBUTT
NEW YORK (AP) — There's good news today for Watergate buffs. The three networks say they'll again take turns providing live TV coverage of the Senate Watergate hearings, which resume Monday.

But there's bad news for daytime Watergate viewers. The networks say they'll only cover the hearings live next week. And there won't be any live coverage of the hearings on public TV at all this time.

There'll only be three days of hearings next week — Monday through Wednesday — and it'll be a pattern generally followed until Nov. 1, when this round of testimony is scheduled to end.

Under a plan agreed on by the networks this week, ABC provides live coverage of Monday's session, NBC takes over on Tuesday and CBS has the duty on Wednesday. Each network has the option of carrying the hearings live any day it isn't scheduled to do so.

The networks say they'll "terminate their experimental (rotation) system" after Wednesday's session, although network spokesmen say this doesn't necessarily mean the end of a revolving era.

They say continued rotation coverage in future weeks is possible, but that it'll require a new agreement among the networks. However, no negotiations to that end are planned right now.

The networks adopted the rotational plan last June 5 to lessen the uproar from viewers deprived of game shows and soap operas and to reduce the loss of advertising dollars as the hearings wore on.

They don't say how much the loss came to for the first 37 days of televised testimony, but Broadcasting magazine, a leading trade publication, estimates it at between $7 million to $10 million.

The hearings, which began May 17, were televised live from start to finish for Eastern Educational Network stations by the National Public Affairs Center for Television. But NPACT isn't doing it this time.

It says the stations are broadcasting school service programs and Watergate coverage would conflict with those shows.

But it says it will videotape each day's hearings in full for the Public Broadcasting Service, which in turn will replay the tapes for its 239 member stations at 8 p.m. EDT.

Ohio Perspective

1974 legislative session looms as political forum

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Next year's session of the 110th General Assembly will be a forum for those seeking re-election, including Gov. John J. Gilligan.

Republicans in the legislature, who dominated both Houses in the 109th but control only the Senate by one-vote in the 110th, will attempt to take credit for some laws, disavow others.

The GOP will be hard put to take credit for tax reform while blaming Gilligan for the state income tax it brought into being.

The tax was passed in the 109th when the GOP was solidly in control.

Voters rejected, 2-1, a proposal to repeal the tax, but many politicians think the income tax even so didn't make either party all that popular.

Many political observers believe defeat of repeal came about because repealers were not offering any alternative. Parents were afraid there would be a widespread closing of schools.

Gilligan promised the tax in his campaign and then saw it through. Republicans gave it to him, with the strategy they would blame him for it in 1974.

Many of those won't be around to blame anybody. They were defeated in the 1972 elections.

The federal grand jury that studied the $50,000 alleged bribery attempt to secure Ohio Department of Commerce favors sweltered in the 90-plus temperatures at the federal building.

Although the building was recently remodeled and air conditioned at a cost over $1 million, the air conditioning had been turned off on orders from Washington.

The General Services Administration, a U.S. District Court official said, ordered it off in offices throughout the country as the federal government's part in alleviating the energy crisis.

"I'll bet they didn't turn it off in the Rayburn Building where the congressmen have offices," the official said.

It's tough and it's going to get tougher.

You can hardly find a place to park or to eat now in downtown Columbus, but wait until next year. When the new 41-story state office is fully occupied, officials estimate, another 200-300 cars will join the downtown jam and 3,500 employees will be looking for midday food.

The new skyscraper doesn't have a garage, but George F. Busche, executive director of the Ohio Building Authority, said the new building will have three separate vending machine areas accommodating 165 persons each.

"It will be good food, quality food," Busche said.

"We'll see," said one state employee being transferred into the huge building.

Probe burning death

MONROE, Mich. (AP)—Authorities were still investigating the cause of death of a Toledo, Ohio, man whose charred body was found Thursday in a wooded Monroe County nursery.

Police identified the man as Carlus B. Maltiba, 32.

Rule slayer may collect

RAVENNA, Ohio (AP)—A Portage County judge has ruled that Danny Lee Bragg, 43, who killed his wife three years ago, has the right to collect on her $27,000 insurance policy.

Bragg was found innocent by reason of insanity in 1972 in the shooting death of his wife, June.

The couple's daughter, Deborah, asked Common Pleas Court to rule whether she or her father, who was primary beneficiary in the policy, should receive the money.

Judge Albert Caris ruled that Ohio law does not prevent an insane person from sharing in an estate.

The money is to be held in trust for Bragg, who is a patient at Lima State Hospital.

Grand jury backs guns

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The outgoing Cuyahoga County grand jury has issued a report supporting firearms in the home and suggesting possible castration of repeat sex criminals.

The jury foreman, real estate man Edward Rybka, also said in his 15-page report that "fear of the black crime image is the number one deterrent to any viable open-housing movement."

The report criticized conditions at City Jail and accused certain judges of laxity, including visiting judges, who Rybka said are "too soft when they should be tough."

In supporting guns in the home, the report says "the responsibility for protecting private property has shifted from government to the public" since today many institutions have their own security forces.

Daytonian appointed to Rights Commission

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Marion R. Sweeney, 37, of Dayton, was appointed Thursday to a five-year term on the Ohio Civil Rights Commission by Gov. John J. Gilligan.

He and Mrs. Patterson have three children, all at home. They are living in Springfield now, but expect to move to Washington C.H. within a year. Meanwhile, Patterson plans to commute. He succeeds Carl Wilt, who resigned after 31 years as manager to enter the auctioneering profession.

Sohio hikes gasoline price by 1 penny

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The Standard Oil Co. (Ohio) boosted gasoline prices one cent per gallon today.

A company official said Sohio recognizes that some independent dealers will be hurt by a wholesale price increase which accompanied the boost in prices at company-owned stations.

The new retail prices announced for company-owned stations is 38.9 cents per gallon for regular and 42.9 cents for premium.

Wholesale prices to dealers were increased one cent per gallon, but the new prices were not disclosed.

Standard said the new retail prices will apply also to Boron Oil Co. stations in West Virginia, western Pennsylvania, northern Kentucky, lower Michigan and Indiana.

Robert G. Griffin, Sohio vice president for marketing, said Sohio recognized that dealers "who have not raised their pump prices will be penalized by the Cost of Living Council's current ruling that price increases cannot be passed through to their customers."

Griffin said a recent survey indicates that many dealers in the Cleveland, Akron, Cincinnati and Toledo areas were posting pump prices already of 38.9 cents per gallon or more, "giving them sufficient margins to be able to absorb the one cent wholesale price increase."

Griffin said Sohio supports "the reported intent of the Cost of Living Council" to let dealers raise their prices to reflect higher wholesale costs.

He said the price hike, the first for Sohio in nearly three years, represents "only 60 per cent of the allowable increase under Phase IV."

School strike hits Vinton

McARTHUR, Ohio (AP) — Teachers struck the Vinton County school system early today after contract talks broke down.

Schools had been open in the county on a day-to-day basis since the school year began.

Bill McNickle, president of the local teachers association, said the main points at issue are dismissal policies and grievance procedures. He said teachers have been concerned since five of them were dismissed following the school year last spring.

McNickle said all 113 teachers at the county's six schools were staying away from classes today. Picket lines were reported in front of the schools.

Melvin's Woe wins Lil' Brown Jug

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP) — "I'm sure glad he was game enough," Joe O'Brien said of 1973 Little Brown Jug winner Melvin's Woe. "That's why I have so many grey hairs."

There never may be a gamer Jug victor than the son of Bret Hanover. He won the first division in 4:57.3-5 and the raceoff in 1:59.2-5 to grab pacing's third jewel of the Triple Crown.

Melvin's Woe's front legs are in such bad shape that they required treatment between his impressive heat victories at the Delaware County Fairgrounds. "I stood him in whirlpool boots between heats," O'Brien explained.

Whirlpool boots are portable baths containing swirling ice and water that prevented swelling in the winner's gimped legs.

"He's had something wrong with his whole career," said O'Brien after driving his second Jug victory. He previously won with Shadow Way, another bad-legged colt in 1958.

"First, he had calcium on his hocks last year," O'Brien continued. "And he's had more leg problems this year. Just last month, he aggravated a right, front tendon at Indianapolis."

But Melvin's Woe, owned by Cleveland coal broker Thurman Downing, shakes off injuries as well as opponents.

Melvin's Woe, who next races in the $60,000 Tattersalls Sept. 29 at Lexington, Ky., now has 17 victories in 27 career starts for a bankroll of more than $157,000. He picked up $44,400 for his Jug victory.

His twin come-from-behind victories split the 1973 Triple Crown three ways. Valiant Bret, third behind Armbrone Nesbit and Melvin's Woe in the Jug raceoff, won the first leg of the Messenger and Smog, who didn't make the third heat here, took the second jewel, The Cane Pace.

Melvin's Woe slipped three horses wide in the backstretch and rolled to a 3-4 length decision over Valiant Bret in the first division.

The raceoff was much tougher. Melvin's Woe, boxed in by Gay Skipper in the third position along the rail, found room along the rail in midstretch. He won by a neck over stablemate Armbrone Nesbit.

Six SCOL squads in final tuneups

Six of the seven South Central Ohio League football teams will finish preparations for the 46th league championship bash with their final tuneup contests, against non-league opponents tonight.

Miami Trace will be the only SCOL team not opening its league schedule Sept. 29 while the six other members will be plunging headlong into the championship race.

The SCOL teams will be hoping to improve a 5-9 record against non-league teams in tonight's action. The SCOL members posted a 13-15-1 record against non-loop teams a year ago.

Tonight's action finds Miami Trace entertaining a winless Columbus Bishop Ready team and Washington C.H. traveling to Portsmouth.

Head coach Fred Zechman's Panthers will be hoping to snap a brief one-game losing spin when the point-starved Silver Knights come calling for the 8 p.m. contest at Miami Trace Field.

Columbus Ready has absorbed two straight shutouts this season as Washington C.H. blanked the Knights 21-0 two weeks ago and Marion Franklin chalked up a 14-0 win last Friday night. Miami Trace has a painful, year-long memory about Columbus Ready as it was the Silver Knights who cracked the Panthers' winning skein at 12 games in a row last autumn.

Ashland win string at stake Saturday

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — One week Ashland is very offensive and the next week very defensive, but the Eagles keep right on winning no matter what path they take.

The nation's ninth-ranked college division football team rolled up 503 yards and 34 points in an opening triumph over Franklin. Last week the Eagles managed only 215 yards and 14 points in a victory over Gustavus Adolphus.

The performances jumped Ashland's winning streak to 13 games, second only to Heidelberg's 14 as the leader among Ohio's 34 football-playing colleges.

This week Ashland plays visiting Edinboro (Pa.) State in an independent night game. The contest is one of 25 for Ohio squads this weekend.

"I don't think I ever have seen as much improvement in one week as we had on defense," said Ashland Coach Fred Martinelli.

"That was one of our best defensive games in the last three years."

BILLIE JEAN KING

King whips Riggs

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

"Riggs has hustled himself right into oblivion," said Cathy Knudson, 22, social worker.

"So what does it prove. A good woman player can beat a 55-year-old man," said Carlos Fernandez, 46, painter. Both are of Miami.

It may not have proved anything in particular, that Astrodome show business spectacular. Except that Bobby Riggs' ultimate hustle fell flat on its male chauvinist face before the onslaught of feminist Billie Jean King. Her straight set victory in tennis' Battle of the Sexes left some women ecstatic and some men thinking of excuses.

"I won five bucks from my husband," said Mrs. Brian King, a Miami housewife. "He was so upset after the second set he went out and walked the dog." Which is exactly what some women said Riggs should have been doing.

"I think it's just great," said Mrs. Ruth Curth, who invited 12 persons to her Long Island home for a television-watching party. She outfitted her six female guests in T-shirts emblazoned with "You've come a long way, baby," and said they'd all wear them to work today.

"I feel he's just conning her into another match," said Stuart Marshall, who attended a jet-setter party on Manhattan's fashionable Sutton Place. Just before the match was over Marshall said he believed Riggs, whose hustling exploits became legend after his Mothers Day whomping of Australian Margaret Court, had conned his audience into thinking he'd be beaten. "Now he's going to make his move," Marshall said.

The only major move Riggs made after that was to congratulate Mrs. King, a five-time Wimbledon champion who said the victory in the $100,000 winner-take-all production was her finest hour. The spectacular also will bring both Riggs and Mrs. King tens of thousands of dollars in endorsements.

Willie Mays finally bows to his years

NEW YORK (AP) — He came up as the "Say Hey" kid, a shy 20-year-old with a squeaky voice and a world of potential; over the next 22 years he fulfilled that promise beyond all expectations, becoming a model of the complete baseball player.

Thursday, Willie Mays, his 42-year-old body still trim and muscular but his once-magnificent skills diminished by nagging injuries and the ravages of time, announced his retirement from the game with which his name had become synonymous.

Ryder Cup lead goes to British

MUIRFIELD, Scotland (AP) — "I don't understand these golf scores but one thing is sure—I hate to lose."

The words were uttered by Jackie Burke Jr., non-playing captain of America's Ryder Cup team after an amazingly bad start in the biennial matches which have been dominated by the United States for 46 years.

The underdog British and Irish team shot to an incredible lead after the first session of the three-day golf spectacle Thursday.

The score was 5½ points to 2½—and the Americans were downcast.

The British were amazed too, for one reason alone. No one on this side of the Atlantic, it seemed, should be able to emerge triumphant from a day of golf against such stars as Jack Nicklaus, Lee Trevino and Arnold Palmer.

But Brian Banres and Bernard Gallacher of Scotland paced the British Isles squad to a lead that looks sensational on paper but could dissolve in the next two days.

Friday's matches repeat the opening day pattern of four Scotch foursomes—in which the partners hit alternate shots with one ball—and another four four-ball contests.

The contest reaches its climax Saturday with 16 singles in match play and even if the Americans are trailing at that stage they usually come into their element in the head-to-head matches.

One week remains for PP&K hopefuls

There is just one week remaining for youngsters in Fayette County to register for the local Punt, Pass and Kick contest.

David Ogan, the Ford dealer here sponsoring the popular youth activity, said that registrations would be taken through Friday, Sept. 28 at the Carroll Halliday Ford dealership in Washington C.H.

The PP&K contest will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 29 at Gardner Park Stadium.

A clinic for any interested youth entering the contest will be held from 1 until 3 p.m. Saturday at Gardner Park. Fred Domenico, director of the contest here, will conduct the clinic.

White demoted

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)—Offensive tackle Sherman White, Cincinnati's first-round draft choice last year, apparently has been demoted by the Bengals.

A Bengals spokesman said Thursday that White probably will not start Sunday against the Houston Oilers. The game will be Cincinnati's home opener with a Central Division rival.

Pony grid openers scheduled Saturday

The five teams in the Washington C.H. Pony Football League will launch the league's 16th season Saturday night at Gardner Park Stadium.

As usual, two games are on tap for Saturday night's opening round.

In Saturday's opening games, the defending champion Interns will clash with Frisch's Big Boys in the 6 p.m. contest while the Marksmen and the Jaycees will buck headgear in the 7:30 p.m. nightcap.

Domenico's Dividends have this week's bye.

JUDGING FROM the annual preview games held last Saturday night at Gardner Park, the league appears to be balanced.

Only three teams managed to score touchdowns in last week's preview games, and quite ironically all the touchdowns were scored against the Marksmen. But, all five teams have had a week to iron out any bugs from the preview games and a tight race is expected.

The Jaycees were the most prolific team in the preview games as they dented the scoreboard with 14 points while the Interns and Frisch's Big Boys both scored one touchdown apiece.

The Marksmen and Domenico's Dividends were held scoreless in the preview games.

Mike Eddlemon turned in the most exciting play of the preview as he scampered 59 yards for a touchdown for the Big Boys' only score of the night.

MT frosh deadlock in campaign debut

The Miami Trace freshman gridders opened their 1973 campaign at Mount Logan Junior High School in Chillicothe Thursday night with a 14-14 tie.

Owning the lead in total offense with 201 yards to 84 yards for the hosts, Miami Trace could only score two times, a feat that Mount Logan had few problems in matching.

In the first quarter, Bill Warnock plunged over from one-yard out, but the extras failed and Miami Trace owned a 6-0 lead.

Then in the second quarter Mount Logan came back with a 35-yard pass play and a two-point conversion to take the lead at the half 8-6.

MIDWAY THROUGH the third stanza, Neil Spears connected with Danny Gifford for a 45-yard score and Rex Coe scored on the extras to hand the Panthers a 14-6 lead.

Bob Smith leads B.C. Open

ENDICOTT, N.Y. (AP) — If you could believe Bob E. Smith, he'd be home today in California nursing a couple of slashed wrists and through with golf.

But no one believed him Thursday at the En-Joe Golf Club, where he fired a sizzling six-under-par 65 to take a first-round lead in the $100,000 B.C. Open Golf Championship.

"My game really fell apart this year," he said. "I missed five cuts and really was discouraged."

Then, in jest, he added:

"I considered going to Sacramento to cut my wrists and give up the game."

But he said great things have happened to him in the last six weeks.

"My game turned around. I don't know why."

Smith, whose tour earnings have ranged from $22,851 to $44,595 in his first five years as a pro, has picked up $28,462 this year. He said, "About $20,000 came in the last six weeks."

Smith was on the course when Jim Dent and Jim Grant walked from the 18th green with 66 on their cards. Their performances put them ahead of nine colleagues who turned in identical 68s.

Mets squeeze NL East race

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Somebody up there likes the New York Mets. Or doesn't like the Pittsburgh Pirates. Or both.

"You've got to believe that someone is watching over us," says Met infielder Wayne Garrett, "and I hope He stays there."

Garrett and the rest of the Mets are more convinced than ever that there's a division title, at the very least, in their immediate future after Thursday night's remarkable 4-3, 13-inning victory over the Pirates.

The win boosted New York into second place in the furious National League East race. Only three games separate the first five teams with just over one week to go.

The Mets are one-half game back of the front-running Bucs. The third-place Montreal Expos, 5-4 losers to the Chicago Cubs, are one game behind. The St. Louis Cardinals, who dropped a 6-5 decision to the Philadelphia Phillies, are in fourth place, 1½ games off the pace. The Cubs are three back.

San Francisco dumped Cincinnati 7-5 and Los Angeles beat Atlanta 5-3 in 12 innings in other National League games.

Cubs 5, Expos 4

The Expos staggered through their fourth straight loss. They out-hit Chicago 13-7 but threw the game away with three errors and three wild pitches. Rick Monday was the big gun for Chicago, collecting three base hits and scoring three times.

Phillies 6, Cardinals 5

Philly second baseman Denny Doyle continued his hot hitting with a homer and sacrifice fly to drive in four runs. Bob Boone and Greg Luzinski knocked in the other Philly runs with solo homers and Bernie Carbo hit one for St. Louis.

Doyle has raised his batting average from .238 to .272 over the last 17 games.

Giants 7, Reds 5

Left-hander Ron Bryant lasted into the seventh inning and that was long enough to pick up his 23rd victory against 11 losses. The Giants struck for six runs in the third inning, three of them scoring on a basesloaded triple by Chris Speier.

San Francisco reliever Elias Sosa recorded his 17th save and set a club record with his 68th appearance of the season.

Dodgers 5, Braves 3

Dave Lopez drilled a two-run homer off Roric Harrison in the 12th inning to account for the Dodgers' victory. Willie Crawford belted a pair of homers for Los Angeles and reliever Charlie Hough got the win.

Hank Aaron didn't hit any home runs but he made up for it with a pair of doubles and a single for the Braves. Aaron still needs three homers to tie Babe Ruth's all-time record of 714.

4-H Roundup

Inspection shows bikes need repairs

By JACK SOMMERS,
County Extension Agent,
4-H

As the 2nd Annual Bicycle Safety week comes to a close we have found a great need for some bicycle repair. Janelle Donahue, 4-H summer assistant, reports that less than one-third of the bicycles are passing the safety inspection.

Janelle indicates that most faulty bicycles can easily be repaired by tightening a few nuts and bolts, putting on new handle bar grips, pedals and chain guards. However, many bicycles are in very poor state of repairs and are not safe to ride.

The bicycle inspections are being performed by the sheriff's department and city police department with the help of the 4-H club program and the Miami Trace and Washington City School Systems.

One point to remember is that old bicycles can pass inspection as easily as a new one if they are in a good state of repair.

The main thrust of Bicycle Safety Week is to make bicycle riders aware of mechanical features necessary for safe riding.

Bicyclists should remember that they must obey the same traffic laws as motorists including all signals, stop signs, travel lanes and speed limits. For information on bicycle regulations call the extension office 335-1150.

MY CONGRATULATIONS to Melissa Mark, Jeff Harper and Susan Wilson for winning special awards in an Ohio State Fair 4-H Activity Class.

Melissa is only the second trophy winner in the nutrition classes for Fayette County in recent years. Jill Fetters was named a winner last year. Melissa's ideas and knowledge in the quick meals project did the trick.

Jeff Harper was a winner in the 4-H Dog Obedience Trials with over 200 contestants participating. Jeff won the Open-B Class with his dog, Susan Wilson placed 5th of 120 contestants in the Livestock Judging Contest at the State Fair, receiving a medal and an opportunity to try out for the State 4-H Livestock Judging Team.

SATURDAY is a Big Day for the Triple-R-Rustlers 4-H Club of Bloomingburg as they sponsor their annual Horse Show beginning at 9:30 a.m. in the Bloomingburg Community Park.

Advisers, Mrs. Jim Greene and Mrs. Eddie Rea, are helping the members prepare for the 28 halter and performance classes offered to youths.

The Yatesville Producers Club is assisting by operating the lunch stand.

Review cases of jobless pay for pregnancies

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) - The Ohio Bureau of Employment Services is reviewing about 200 cases involving unemployment compensation to pregnant women as a result of a recent federal court ruling, the bureau's administrator said Wednesday.

Administrator William E. Ganes said the court maintained if a pregnant woman is laid off or fired even though her doctor has certified she could have worked, she is eligible for the compensation.

She's not eligible if she leaves her work voluntarily, Ganes said.

He said OBES rules were being rewritten to conform to the ruling, which was retroactive to Oct. 22, 1972.

Man given life term in neighbor's death

ELYRIA, Ohio (AP) - A Lorain man was sentenced Thursday to life imprisonment for the second-degree murder of his neighbor during an argument.

Charles Wiley, 37, had been convicted by a jury in the death of Harold Tucker, 46.

Midland Co. sells building

W.K. Ross, vice president of the Midland Grocery Co., announces the sale of the firm's 30,000-square-foot building on S. Hinde Street to The Shady Lane Co., a partnership composed of four local Cartwright brothers, Lloyd, president, Jack, vice president, Loren and Gary.

The Shady Lane Co. is in the business of buying and renting residences and apartments and leasing commercial property.

The three-floor building has been leased to Montgomery Ward for the last few years as a warehouse. Jack Cartwright said no changes in the building or its use are planned for the present.

The transaction was handled by Ben Wright, a salesman of the Polk Real Estate Agency.

One of three other buildings owned by the Midland Grocery Co. on S. Main St. is for sale, Donald Long, the company manager here said. It is the 42,500-square-foot building at 133 S. Main St., which was occupied by the Coffman Stair Co. several years ago. It has been vacant since the Coffman Co. moved out.

The Midland Grocery Co. offices are in the building at East and Main Sts. (No. 153) and the other building owned by the company is located between the two at 141 S. Main St.

The other two buildings, are being used by the grocery company and are not for sale. The offices are on the first floor of the one at 133 S. Main St. and the top three floors and basement are for warehousing and shipping. The building contains 54,000 square feet of floor space. The other, at 141 S. Main St., between the two has 22,000 square feet of floor space in three floors and basement, all used for warehousing.

Customs director looks back

By JERRY HARKAVY
PORTLAND, Maine (AP) — While most people would be content with one successful career, Lucia M. Cormier is now well into her fourth.

A former teacher, businesswoman and politician, Miss Cormier has served for the past dozen years as collector, then district director of U.S. Customs for Maine.

"I look back on every one of my careers, and they contributed to a very rewarding and enriching life," she said. As a teacher, Miss Cormier served for 14 years as head of the modern language department at Stephens High School in her native Rumford, then quit in 1945 to open a gift and stationery shop.

THAT SAME YEAR, she attended a Rumford Democratic town committee meeting as "something to do for an evening" and got her first taste of politics.

Two years later, she was a state representative; in three, Maine's Democratic National committeewomen; in five, her party's nominee for Congress. She lost that race to Rep. Robert Hale and was defeated in a 1960 Senate bid by the GOP incumbent, Margaret Chase Smith, in the nation's first senatorial contest between two women.

"With me, politics was always an avocation, never a vocation," Miss Cormier said in an interview in her spacious office in the U.S. Customhouse near the Portland waterfront. "I was self-employed at the time, and I was never trying to earn a livelihood in politics. It was a hobby."

A SUPPORTER of the proposed Equal Rights Amendment to the U.S. Constitution, she questions some of the methods used by women's liberation groups. "I believe in dissent, but when they're not ladylike in their approach, I just don't feel they're accomplishing much."

"I believe femininity is a part of our makeup, and anything unladylike doesn't get us anywhere."

Miss Cormier feels she has never been discriminated against in politics because of her sex.

"Whatever I have done, I have tried to do as an individual, not as a woman," she said.

Hunting, Fishing Day set Saturday

With an emphasis on conservation of natural resources, 11 Fayette County organizations will join the Fayette County Fish and Game Association in celebrating National Hunting and Fishing Day Saturday at the association's lodge on Stafford Road.

Five local Boy Scout troops plan to contribute to the public's knowledge of practical conservation at the NHF Day program. Troop 67's display will depict a common sense approach to conservation and show some wrong as well as right ways to help preserve natural resources.

Troop 152 will assist with parking, attendance taking, guiding visitors to the day's events as well as be displaying some of their own woodcraft projects. Troops 112 and 748 will join forces to provide a first aid station and on-the-spot litter collection to help dramatize that problem. Troop 229 will erect two camp sites, a neat and orderly one and a deliberately untidy and littered one. Visitors will readily see the importance of keeping a clean camp site.

will be well-represented at the NHF Day activities. Their display will include a continuous slide show featuring local 4-H projects, woodworking and a special segment of slides entitled "Mulligan's Stew," which promotes good nutrition. Some of the county's top award-winning 4-H members will be explaining various soil and water conservation programs and will be handing out literature on these subjects.

Five of Fayette County's Garden Clubs have prepared 15 unusual display items for the NHF Day visitors to observe. The Fayette Garden Club will provide wreathes made of locally collected natural materials.

Youth evades officers but is found 'asleep'

Employees of Hidy's Foods saw a 16-year-old Washington C.H. boy taking a pack of cigarettes from their store and in an attempt to catch him initiated a "Keystone Kops" chase that continued on foot through the city, behind the railroad tracks on W. Court Street. Before it was over officers from the sheriff's department and city police joined in the melee.

The youth fled the store, throwing the pack of cigarettes at one of the employees in pursuit. After being found in some bushes where he had attempted to hide, he darted down Columbus Avenue to Court Street. A few alleys later, the youth crossed the railroad tracks behind Montgomery Wards and disappeared.

Officers from the police and sheriff's departments, who were just arriving on the scene, acted on some reliable information and found the boy "asleep" at his residence. He was perspiring heavily.

They then questioned him and

Mom talks to newsmen on sextuplets

DENVER (AP) — "If they put them all together I wouldn't know which was which, except for Catherine," says the mother of the Stanek sextuplets.

Catherine is the lone girl among the five survivors.

"I've only seen them once and, no, I can't tell them apart," said Edna Stanek, 34, in her first meeting with the news media.

"They're not too individual right now," she said Thursday. "They're very tiny. There are tubes and wires connected to them that are helping them along."

"John's pretty lively," she said. Looking tired but relaxed, Mrs. Stanek said, "I feel a lot better today because the news (about the children's health) has been so much more promising than it has been."

John and Jeffrey were in good condition Thursday night. Steven, Nathan and Catherine were in satisfactory condition and using respirators to help them breathe, according to Dr. James Strain, a pediatrician at Colorado General Hospital.

He said all five were improving. The sextuplets were born Sunday night about six weeks premature. Julia died Tuesday night from hyaline membrane disease, which coats the lungs with a film.

State welcome to set priorities for heating oil

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)— The state is welcome to set its own priorities for fuel oil allocations from Standard Oil Co. (Ohio) this winter, a company spokesman says after meeting with state officials.

The spokesman, Sohio President Alton W. Whitehouse, added that he not only didn't object to the idea, "but we are pleased to see the state government recognizes that priorities must be established because of the fuel shortage."

Sohio recently told the state that this winter's supplies would be no more than the state used last year. The state had estimated the need would be more than twice the nearly 5.5 million gallons of fuel oil it used last winter.

A state spokesman said some planned conversions from coal to fuel oil would be held up and that some heating plants already switched over would be reconverted to coal.

In addition to the many different conservation-oriented displays, the local observance of National Hunting and Fishing Day will feature a number of special exhibitions and five skill centers where visitors will be able to try some of the popular outdoor sports.

The program will begin at 9 a.m. Saturday with a combat pistol shooting exhibition, one of six special shooting exhibits. Admission and all events are free of charge. Lunch will be served from 11:30 a.m. until 1:30 p.m.
